

TRACK MEN HOPE TO WIN EASILY IN DEPAUW MEET

TWENTY-EIGHT MEN MAKE TRIP; COMPETITION KEEN IN FIELD EVENTS

Twenty-eight men, accompanied by Tom Lieb and Manager Sutcliffe, left South Bend at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Greencastle, where Notre Dame will engage DePauw in a dual track meet this afternoon.

The Notre Dame squad having been in almost continuous training since the close of the indoor meet with Wisconsin, is in good form and should experience no trouble in winning over the downstate aggregation. The DePauw team boasts of two stars in Captain Smith and Paul Jones, who won the honors for all-around in the Illinois indoor relays. Jones will offer competition in the high and broad jump and in the pole vault. The diminutive star is entertaining hopes of qualifying in the Olympic trials to be run off in June.

Notre Dame is assured of a win in the middle distance runs and in the mile, two-mile and dashes. The century and the 220-yard dash will see Barr and Layden in better than early season form. Both men should be numbered among the leading sprinters of the middle west this year and the state meet and conference classic will give them a choice opportunity to step out in fast company. Glenn Smith is credited with :10 flat in the century while the timers have clocked him for the 220-yard run in :23.

Spanish Club To Be Organized Monday

Under the sponsorship of Father McKeon, head of the Spanish department, a Spanish club is about to be formed on the campus. Two closed meetings have already been held by those who are organizing the club, and future plans have been outlined. The S. A. C. and the faculty have given their official sanction to the club, and it is now open to all who wish to join. The first open meeting will be held on Monday at 12:30 in the south room of the library.

The object of this meeting is to form the organization into an active and co-operative body by the end of the school year, so that next year the club can take a lively part in campus activities. At this first meeting, officers will be elected, and plans for the future of the club will be discussed. Anyone may join, and it is not necessary to be able to talk Spanish fluently to become a member. All students who take this language are urged to attend the first meeting, as the club wishes to be successful and maintain itself by co-operation.

N. D. Band Prepares for Spring Concerts

The university band, which has remained inactive since the close of the football season, has begun to practice for its spring campaign. On April 24, it will be broadcasted by WGAZ radio of the South Bend Tribune. Every Wednesday evening the campus will hear its concerts which are given every spring. President Egan stated that negotiations are being made for concerts in local suburban towns during the coming months. He further said that the band will again play an important part in the commencement exercises in June.

JUNIORS CHOOSE PROM ORCHESTRA

JEAN GOLDKETTE'S ORCHESTRA SIGNS; OTHER PROM FEATURES ANNOUNCED.

Jean Goldkette and his orchestra has been definitely chosen to play the Junior promenade on May 2, it was announced last night by the committee in charge, following a series of wires between the Junior class and the Detroit Athletic club, where he is playing under exclusive contract. This practically completes arrangements for the dance, as all other contracts have been let.

Jean Goldkette's orchestra has had a rapid rise in the musical world and is said to be much sought after to play dances in all parts of the country. He has just lately contracted to make a series of records for the Victor people, and which will be on sale in the very near future. Goldkette has played the big Michigan "J" hops for the past three years, and has been exceptionally well received.

Introduces Novelties

The orchestra is composed of 12 of the best musicians in the west. They have been playing together for the past three years and for that reason their orchestrations are almost perfect. Goldkette, himself, plays the piano, and his solos are a feature.

One of the novelties that the orchestra will introduce is the lately copyrighted song-hits, "Smile All the While," written and arranged by Gerald Hassmer of the Junior class. Hassmer has already won recognition by his numbers, "Say, Say, Sadie" and "Desert Moon."

Don Elbel of Elbel Bros. and John Moran, junior president, aided greatly in securing this band. The Music committee has been active for the past several months to book an orchestra to conform with

FORMER GOVERNOR OF IOWA TO TALK HERE ON TUESDAY

WILLIAM LLOYD HARDING TO BE BROUGHT HERE BY REPUBLICAN CLUB

Hon. William Lloyd Harding, former governor of Iowa, will speak in the south room of the library next Tuesday night under the auspices of the Republican club of the university, it was announced last night by John Stanton, chairman of the executive committee of the club.

Not Campaign Talk

The appearance of Mr. Harding at Notre Dame will be the first of a series of talks by prominent men arranged by the Republican and Democratic clubs of the university. The talks will be on political problems but will not be of a campaign nature, being instead for the purpose of educating students in the principles of the various parties.

Mr. Harding, who will be here Tuesday night, has had a long term of public service. He first became prominent in 1907 when he was elected to the state house of representatives, in which capacity he served till 1913. In 1913 he be-

BLUE CIRCLE TO RECEIVE AWARDS

FATHER WALSH TO PRESENT
WATCH CHARMS TUESDAY;
ROCKNE TO TALK

Presentation of gold watch charms to members of the Blue Circle will be made Tuesday night in the south room of Lemmonier library at 7:00 o'clock by Rev. Matthew Walsh, president of the university. All members of the circle will receive the charms.

Father Walsh will make the presentation and Knute Rockne, athletic director, will give a short talk. The session will conclude the work of the organization which had charge of Homecoming arrangements, the sale of band tags and hockey tags, and aided in securing subscriptions for both the Dome and the DAILY.

The charms to be presented to the man are in the form of a circle. A blue enamel circle with the words "Blue Circle, 1924," surrounds a raised monogram. Matthew Rothert of Sorin hall is chairman of the Circle, the members of which are annually named by the S. A. C.

Laetare Medalist of 1923 Dies Suddenly

Word was received at the university last night of the death of Mr. Walter George Smith, recipient of the Laetare medal last year. Mr. Smith died following a stroke of apoplexy at his home in Torisdale, a suburb of Philadelphia, yesterday.

Mr. Smith, who was president of the American Bar association and also president of the Federation of the Catholic Societies of Pennsylvania, was a visitor at the university last November 8, when he was awarded the medal in Washington hall for having distinguished himself by his services to his church and to his country.

S. A. C. COMPLETES CARNIVAL PLANS

BEGIN ERECTION OF STAGE; CLUBS MUST REPORT ON ACTS

Final preparations for the staging of the Student Activities Committee carnival; Monday night, will begin today with the construction of a stage in the gymnasium. Tickets for the entertainment were placed on sale Thursday and may be purchased from Don Gallagher, Corby hall, for 10 cents each.

The appearance of a nationally known actress at the affair will feature the carnival, according to George Bischoff, secretary of the S. A. C. Because of the surprise which is planned, her identity has not yet been divulged.

"Coffee and Doughnuts"

A concession to sell candy and other delicacies has been secured by the Scholarship club of South Bend. During the presentation of the various acts, it is planned by the club to supply two doughnuts and a cup of coffee for the nominal charge of 10 cents. These may be obtained from the booth to be erected in the gymnasium.

Reports on the progress of ten clubs entered in the carnival were received yesterday. Other organizations which have not yet notified the S. A. C. of their progress are asked to report today. In this way it is hoped to gain information on the activities of the various clubs which will present acts in order that no organizations will be entered that do not put in an appearance on the night of the spectacle.

Old Regatta Boat, "Corby," Destroyed

The "Corby," relic of traditional commencement regattas of 1910-11-12, has been destroyed. The boat, winner of the 1912 regatta, was burned in the steam house in Dujarie hall this week.

Students will no longer be attracted by the boat which has rested along the bank of the lake for a decade, though its story is an interesting one.

The "Corby" and the "Golden Jubilee," another regatta boat, were the last of the regatta craft. Father Lange was captain of the rowing team in 1912, the last year of the races, when the "Golden Jubilee" won the Junior-Senior race on St. Joseph's lake. Other members of the team included Howard Robinson, Dockweiler, Johnson and Cusick. Since that time there have been no rowing races at Notre Dame.

MARK NOLAN WINS QUALIFYING PLACE IN ORATORS' MEET

DODDS OF OHIO AND MISS
HARTMAN OF KENTUCKY
ALSO GO TO FINALS

Delivering his oration, "The Guardian of the Constitution," with unaffected eloquence, Mark E. Nolan, Notre Dame, representing the state of Indiana, won a qualifying place in the final intercollegiate contest in the eastern divisional meet held in Washington hall last night. John W. Dodds, of Worcester college, Ohio, and Miss Edith Hartman, of Transylvania college, Kentucky, were the other two orators who merited places in the final contest, which will be held at Northwestern university. A large and appreciative audience heard the seven orators.

"The foundation of the American government today is secure in the safeguard of the supreme court," said Nolan. He vehemently denounced Robert LaFollette, of Wisconsin, which, he said, would make the supreme court an historic relic.

Klan Denounced

"The Lotus Eaters," by John Dodds, was a study of the insidious methods employed by the Ku Klux Klan. He declared that America's problem is not to solve international questions, but to remove a sinister movement within our country. Dodds reproached the present lawlessness and referred to the "Herrin massacre," in which all men responsible were declared not guilty.

Miss Edith Hartman won audience and judges by her grace and artistic interpretation of a theme on "The Unfilled Promise." Freedom, union, liberty and democracy, we have attained, she said, but after two thousand years, we have not yet realized "peace on earth toward men of good will." Miss Hartman outlined six fundamental principles which she believes necessary to gain universal peace, namely, religion, education, government, leadership, economic prosperity, and democracy. All men, said Miss Hartman, must be dominated by the true principles of Christianity.

The evils of the Ku Klux Klan were exposed by Alvin C. Eurich in his speech on "America's Domestic Problem." Eurich eloquently showed where the Klan had failed in its purpose and contended that if the projects of the Klan were worthy why should it act under the cloak of secrecy.

World Court Advocated

Francis J. Rearick, orating on "America Must Decide," upheld the World Court and advocated the entrance of the United States into the court. He advanced many cogent reasons why the World Court should be established to settle all international disputes.

The evolution of justice was portrayed by Roy Lockwood in his "Justice Through Law." Lockwood tended to prove through the history of justice that it is logical to have a supreme international body to settle differences among all nations.

John B. Ray closed the program with a scholarly oration on "The Real Victory." He told of the inefficiency of the present athletic system, asserting that the men who

Announce Change in Time of Sunday Mass

A change in the schedule of Sunday student masses was announced yesterday by Rev. John F. O'Hara, prefect of religion. Low mass will be read in Sacred Heart church at 6:30 o'clock instead of 7:30 o'clock hereafter. High mass will be at 8:30 o'clock as heretofore. The serving of breakfast in the refectory will not begin until 7:30 o'clock on Sunday hereafter.

THE DAILY'S STAND FOR NOTRE DAME

*A union building to be built as soon as possible.
 A well-organized student body, residing on the campus.
 True recognition of good scholarship and a better appreciation for the efforts of men in campus activities.*

POLITICS

With the appearance on the campus of organizations chartered by the national committees of the two outstanding political parties, politics both local and national, bid fair to take a place among the leading campus activities. This should be regarded with enthusiasm by the undergraduate body, regardless of party affiliation, because of the inestimable good that comes out of an investigation of the principles of each.

The college man of today is weak in knowledge of the political issues whereas he should be among the best informed in his community. This is probably due to the lack of genuine interest, because most men are willing to be a Democrat if their father was one, or a Republican because a distant relative was a delegate in the county convention back in the nineties.

With the advantages at hand to learn both sides of the principal questions of the day, combined with the opportunities that the Republican and Democratic clubs of Notre Dame offer to hear the foremost men of the nation, every student should avail himself of the chances offered. With a mind free from the influence of the soap box orator he should attend the meetings of both clubs and thereby equip himself to talk intelligently and vote intelligently when the occasion presents itself.

ART TRAINING IN COLLEGE

In a recent number of the Catholic Art Bulletin, the official organ of the Federation of Catholic Arts, there is presented a strong appeal for art training in college because of its great value as an educational study and its usefulness in later life. The writer, George C. Nimmons, in showing that such training gives a most useful means of self-expression that can not be acquired in any other way, says:

"The faculty of taste is the sense of the power to discern and appreciate beauty, order, proportion, symmetry, and good color, and the fitness and appropriateness of things is an important trait of human character which can only be acquired by art training. One of the most prominent qualities in the personality of an individual is his standard of taste. . . . Even courtesy and human kindness are stimulated and increased by good taste; for selfishness and bad manners are ugly, and anyone who has a keen sense of what is beautiful and good naturally avoids disagreeable manners and bad treatment of others, aside from the moral questions involved.

"By training in art and the development of standards of taste, the ability to judge and estimate the character of others is acquired. . . . And it is often by the works of art that the historian judges the people of the past more than by any written record. A student, therefore, who studies art will find it a valuable aid in the study of history, and a useful means of judging the character of the people of his own day."

In these days of growing protest against education which does not educate, the observations of Mr. Nimmons are worthy of consideration. And while it is impossible for all students to take an art course, it is possible for each student to make some effort to come to a better appreciation of art. One way of making such an effort would be the reading of Great Christian Artists," by Reverend E. F. Garesche, S. J.

What Others Say

Vive M. Poincare

Whether one sympathizes with the policy of the man, no one can but be sorry that such an able and courageous statesman as M. Poincare has been forced to resign from the premiership of France. The encouraging note of the affair is that President Millerand has requested M. Poincare to form a new cabinet and once again take over the reins of office. France owes more than she can ever pay to this man, whose devotion to her interests and safety has been unstinted, both during the war and the period of reconstruction. The republic will never fall as long as such men continue to guide its destinies. Vive M. Poincare.—Daily Princetonian.

At Other Colleges

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY—Fifty high school men representing Chicago and suburban high schools were entertained by Northwestern students recently at a stag party. The affair was a success in its purpose to acquaint the boys with Northwestern university.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY—Cods are forming a debating team and intramural contests will be held due to the fact that the remaining school year does not allow for interscholastic debates.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY—Seventeen candidates for the baseball team departed on a southern trip to put them into condition for their regular schedule. Several games have been booked with southern teams.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY—At a recent dinner given by the law school, 575 persons attended, including the faculty and law students. The affair was held at the Astor hotel.

CHICAGO UNIVERSITY—Plans are now being formulated by which all incoming freshmen will report at the university a week before school starts in order that they may get acquainted with traditions and the curriculum of studies.

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY—Fur coats are to vanish from the wardrobes of freshmen—this rule will go into effect next fall and is sponsored by the senior council. Other laws which the class of 1928 must conform to are: No freshman should wear college colors in any form; black shoes, socks and ties only may be worn; after 9 p. m. all freshmen must remain in their rooms.

Scholarships for Physical Chemists

Fellowships will be given in electricity, physics, and physical chemistry by the Charles A. Coffin Foundation, and are available to graduates of the universities, colleges and technical schools of the United States who have shown, by the character of their work that they could with advantage undertake or continue research work in educational institutions either in this country or abroad. The committee in charge desires to award fellowships to men who, without financial assistance, would be unable to devote themselves to research work. Six were awarded last year. Application from seniors as well as graduates will be welcome, but any award to a senior will be conditioned upon his being graduated.

Five thousand dollars has been made available by the foundation for this purpose. The fellowships carry a minimum allowance of $500 each, which will be increased to meet the special needs of applicants to whom they are granted.

NEW YORK CHAMPS

The New York Yankees are all set to prove their right to the title again this year. The Huggins clan has a club of veterans and a pitching staff that should win a pennant for any team. The outfield and infield are all veterans and the club is primarily a slugging outfit.

New Offerings on Stage and Screen

The booking of plays which will appear at the Oliver theater this spring should cause great satisfaction among followers of the stage. The list of legitimate plays which are coming in the near future is as follows:

Next Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, "Give and Take," a farce-comedy featuring George Sydney, will be presented. It is a new play and advance notices have been very complimentary to it.

Clara Kimball Young is scheduled for a matinee and evening performance on Sunday, April 13, in a play called "Trimmed in Scarlet," and on Wednesday, April 16, Alice Brady will come in a new play, "Zander the Great."

April 20, 21, and 22 will witness the arrival of DeWolf Hopper in a three day's run of "Kempy." There will be no matinees. May Robson, in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" is due on April 24, 25 and 26.

Other productions scheduled for the near future are the "Greenwich Village Follies," with the famous team of Gallagher and Shean; and "The Passing Show," with Willie and Eugene Howard. "The Fool," and "The Old Soak," with Irving Hitchcock, will also be shown sometime during the month of May.—E. C.

The month of April, 1924, has been the best month for circulation and for reference in the history of the library; not taking into consideration the work on ready reference books such as encyclopedias that have open access to the students at all times. During the past month nearly every seat in the south reference room has been occupied. Each of these reference halls have 100 seats. From this a fair estimate may be made of the use of the library.

On account of the increase in the amount of work, Paul R. Byrne of the library reference room has recently been supplemented in his work by Harry Engle.

KEOGAN BOOKS PRACTICE GAMES FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW

The fight for places on the varsity baseball nine is nearing a climax as the time for departure on the southern jaunt nears, and two practice games this week-end will go far to determine who will be selected to make up the party of 16 men to be taken on the tour.

Coach Keogan expects to send his men against a group of South Bend players on the diamond south of the gym this afternoon, and the Indestructo Trunk team of Mishawaka is carded for an appearance Sunday afternoon.

Leave on Thursday

The squad will leave for Atlanta, Ga., next Thursday, and will play its first regularly scheduled game on Friday against Georgia Tech. Eight games are on the list, and the men will return to South Bend on Easter Sunday.

Excellent weather conditions the last couple of days have enabled Keogan to send his aspirants through short practice games against each other, and thus test the ability of the men under fire. While many defects are noticeable, the squad appears to have the material for a fast club.

Pitchers Working

Probably the most interesting tussle that is being waged for positions is among the pitchers, a dozen men being engaged in stiff competition for the regular staff. This has been generally feared to be the most troublesome problem facing Keogan, but the earnest work of the men may serve to make things a bit easier.

LAW CLUB ATHLETICS

It was announced by Manager Ray Brady yesterday afternoon that the first baseball team in the history of the Law club has been organized and that plans were being formed to schedule games with South Bend high school and the campus teams, including the Interhall nines and the Engineering club aggregation. Tom Donovan has been elected captain. All the pre-law men and the members of the Law club are eligible for the team.

Scrimmage on Slate for Grid Men Today

Scrimmage will be in order for spring football candidates this afternoon, Coach Rockne remaining at Notre Dame to supervise the work despite the fact that the track squad meets DePauw there today.

It will be the first strenuous workout of the spring session and is in line with Rockne's policy of teaching his men as much about the game as possible in spring to enable him to move quickly to the fine points in the fall.

The scrimmage session will not be a long one but an opportunity will be given a majority of the candidates to get into the mixup for a short time.

REQUESTS GRID TOGS

Coach Knute Rockne yesterday afternoon issued a call for all football suits taken by men who are not now reporting for spring practice. Rockne is anxious to equip men on the waiting list for the practice session this afternoon. Suits should be turned in at the gymnasium this morning.

PURDUE WINS

Purdue university drew the first baseball blood of the season when the Boilermakers defeated DePauw 11-4. The game was featured by early season defects and three hurlers were used by both coaches.

OLYMPIC TEAM TO BE WEAK IN RUNS

DISTANCE MEN NOT UP TO FORM; COLLEGE STARS ARE DEPENDENT ON

With little more than two months before the American Olympic track team leaves for France, the prospects for a point-winning aggregation to represent the United States has been the chief topic of discussion among the sport critics of the country.

Davis Walsh recently made some very interesting observations on a few of the candidates for the American team. His outlook of course was confined to star performers in athletic clubs and collegiate record holders, since the Olympic trials soon to be staged in various parts of the country, promise to bring out some college material equally as good as the veterans of the track whose consistent showings have labeled them as certain Olympians.

In many respects the indoor season for Joie Ray, premier American miler and dependable two-miler, has been a failure. Ray turned in one good race during the entire season which means that he only broke one record. A comparison of Ray's indoor work with that of Nurmi of Finland and Wide of Sweden falls so far short of an even break that it would be only matter of four minutes and ten seconds to prove to Ray that his trip abroad had been a mistake. However, the Windy City flash is yet apt to disprove the sport oracles and turn in some record time on the cinders. Ray's best time for the season was 4:18 3-5, registered when he won the Hunter mile.

Ray Watson, who figured as the best half miler in the world in 1923, has gone into a slump through being overtrained. Jimmy Connelly, former Georgetown star chalked up 4:17 4-5 on the boards during 1923, but during the past season he

Two More Weeks of Football for Tigers

Spring football for the Princeton Tigers will continue for two more weeks, Coach Roper announced this week, and will have to be discontinued at that time because of the warm weather. The squad has been out eight days now. The spring session, though short, is giving the Jungletown mentor a fair opportunity to get acquainted with some of the new men who have reported this spring.

In so far as veterans are concerned, the Tigers will have no great amount of worry, as they have a nucleus around which to build the 1924 team. The work during the past few days has been confined to the rudiments of the game such as falling on the ball, line charging and blocking and tackling the dummy. Signal practice polishes off each day's practice.

BOY COURSE WORK AT N. D. OUTLINED

RAYMOND HOYER IN CHARGE
HERE TELLS OF AVAILABLE
POSITIONS FOR GRADS

Raymond Hoyer of Toledo who has charge of the graduate course in Boy Guidance at Notre Dame stated yesterday that men graduating from the course will be qualified to fill any of the following positions:

Director, municipal recreation, field secretary for Boys Club Federation, Boys' club organizer, playground supervisor, Boy Scout executive, juvenile court probation officer, secretary for Big Brother society, supervisor of Diocesan association, superintendent of Boys' club, school athletic director, camp director or counsellor, community organizer, director of community or recreation centers.

The two years' course will include a thorough background in the theory and practice of work with boys, boy and gang psychology, physical education and a thorough understanding of all the programs for boy work from physical, educational, and vocational standpoints. Practical work will start with the second quarter of the first year in South Bend, Mishawaka and St. Edward's school.

Practical Side of Work.

During the second semester of the second year the time will be devoted to serving an apprenticeship in some organization in one of the larger cities where the student will work under expert direction of the person in charge. In addition the students will have a two weeks' camp in June of first year woodcraft, and the Boy Scout program, and will spend a minimum of six weeks at a recognized camp for boys following this. In other words the students will have both the theory and the practical experience necessary to be a successful worker with boys.

the standards of the prom in order that its success might be assured.

There are still a few prom tickets left, but the announcement of the orchestra will probably exhaust the supply in a short time. Those who have made deposits on their tickets should make an effort to take them up as soon as possible in order that the invitations may be mailed.

came lieutenant governor of the state, and in 1917 was elected governor, serving until 1921.

He is vitally interested in the college man and politics, being a graduate of the University of South Dakota. He also studied at Morning-side college.

Other speakers are being arranged for by the Republican club, Congressman Bede of Minnesota being scheduled for a talk shortly after the Easter vacation. The Democratic club is likewise arranging for a group of prominent speakers to talk on the campus.

OLYMPIC TEAM

couldn't get under the 4:30 mark.

The marks for sprints and middle distance runs were much better than the longer grinds and the country is certain to be represented by a coterie of sprinters and quarter-milers that will be hard to beat.

Murchison and Paddock are the particular prizes in the dash events and will be assisted, no doubt, by Chester Bowman, the Syracuse half-back. Furthermore, the trials for the college performers are certain to bring out one or two exceptional sprint men to bolster up the team. Asher, Tierney, Herlihy and Woodring are consistent veterans in the quarter-mile run and all have been doing about :49 flat for the indoor season.

The field events will be reinforced by college stars. Already the critics are counting on Landon, Brown, and Osborne in the high jump and Libby of Dartmouth and Owen of Pennsylvania in the pole vault. The vault event will also be contended for by Brownell of Illinois.
