

FR. BOLGER TALKS TO N. D. KNIGHTS

"THE NECESSITY OF RELIGION IN EDUCATION" DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF KNIGHTS.

"The Necessity of Religion in Education" was ably discussed by Father William Bolger, C. S. C., head of the department of politics and economics, at the regular meeting of Notre Dame Knights of Columbus, Tuesday night.

"Because religion touches life so intimately and at so many points," said the speaker, "it comes about that if one delves deeply into any of the great human problems of the day—capital and labor, divorce, birth control and the treatment of the defective and dependent classes—he inevitably comes upon a religious question.

"Hence the teachers of the social sciences, whether they wish to or not, constantly enter the field of ethics and very often make excursions into the field of religion. If these instructors are not guided by sound ethical and religious teaching, they necessarily become exponents of false ethics and false religion, with great detriment to the faith and morals of their pupils."

Father Bolger pointed out that false religious and moral training are especially dangerous to young men and young women because the average student does not fear intellectual error and as a result does not try to guard against it. "Persons of average virtue, however, do fear moral error," said Father Bolger, "and they are on their guard."

"He, who has committed grave sins of the flesh, is in his best moments humiliated by the recollection and realization of his wrong. On the other hand, the individual who has fallen into grave intellectual error—who has become an atheist, for example—becomes proud of his error. He thinks he is a few jumps ahead of the rest of men, and just because of his pride, he is unable to repent and unable to return to sane-mindedness. In my opinion, a book attacking faith or morals is more dangerous by far to the average young man than is a woman of loose morals."

At the business session preceding the address, plans were completed for the conferring of the first degree on a class of candidates at Notre Dame tonight, and for the exemplification of the second and third degrees Sunday at Mishawaka. Arrangements were also announced for the banquet to be held at the Oliver hotel following the initiation Sunday.

Deputy Grand Knight Ray Cunningham, editor of the Santa Maria, stated that the publication would appear on Thursday of next week. A copy will be given to every Notre Dame knight.

Juniors Nominate Miller and Scallan

At the nomination meeting of the Junior class held Tuesday afternoon in the library, Donald Miller, varsity half-back, and Jack Scallan, editor of the 1924 Dome, were selected as candidates for the presidency. Joe Toolen of Badin hall and William Merriman of Brownson hall received the vice-president nomination. George Laughlin, a day student, and Barney McNabb of Badin hall were the choice for secretary. For treasurer William Hurley and John Kilkenny, both of Walsh hall, were nominated. All of these men will be voted upon at the junior election meeting held this afternoon at 12:30 in the south room of the library.

Fr. Donahue Talks at May Devotion

Rev. James Donahue, C. S. C., rector of Moreau Seminary, delivered the May devotion sermon last evening in the Sacred Heart church. His subject was "Queen of the Rosary, Pray for us." He told of the importance of having Mary, the mother of God, as our heavenly mother, and he emphasized the beauty of the "Hail Mary."

Benediction followed the sermon, with Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C. S. C., officiating.

ST. MARY'S TO GIVE ORIGINAL OPERETTA

"MAY NIGHT" IN SCHOOL AUDITORIUM TOMORROW.

The St. Mary's College Glee club will present an original operetta entitled "May Night", on Friday evening in the St. Mary's gymnasium auditorium at 7:45 p. m. This production will be offered not only for the college girls, but for South Benders and others interested in such a program.

In the cast the principal characters are Miss Frances La Pointe, Miss Marjorie Fox, Miss Florence Donahue, Miss Catherine Boyle, Miss Virginia Waltham and Miss Margaret Foster.

The composer of the operetta, although a St. Mary's student, wishes to withhold her name. Tonight a dress-rehearsal will be held.

Glee Club to Close Season in Chicago

The Glee club will sing its last big concert of the year Friday night at the Morrison hotel in Chicago. This concert, arranged by Dr. Browne, the club's director, is being sponsored by the Auld Lang Syne club of St. Patrick's Girls' school, Chicago. Assisting artists for this appearance of the club will be Miss Sara McCabe, soprano, and Miss Helen Franklin, pianist. Both are well-known Chicago artists.

Advance indications point to an unusually successful concert as 1,000 tickets had been sold by Wednesday. Tickets are selling for $5 a couple. The concert has been announced as "aiding the building fund for erecting a home for the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent De Paul."

A Benson orchestra has been engaged to play for the dancing following the concert. The affair will begin at 8:15 p. m. in the Cameo room of the Morrison hotel. Notre Dame men are especially invited.

The entire Glee club will leave the University Friday noon for Chicago, and will stop at the Morrison. Every member of the club must attend the rehearsal this noon to receive a railroad ticket.

SENIORS ANNOUNCE PROGRAM FOR BALL

INCLUDING DINNER DANCE
RECEPTION, THEATER PARTY AND ATHLETIC EVENTS.

Plans have been practically completed by the Ball committee under the direction of Owen Desmond for the Senior Ball entertainment which will commence Wednesday afternoon, May 21, with a baseball game between the University of Minnesota and Notre Dame on Cartier field. On Wednesday evening, Harry Denny's Collegians will furnish the entertainment for an informal dancing party in the Oliver hotel. The informal reception for the Senior class will be held in the Elk's Temple, for which the Big Five orchestra will provide the music. Arrangements have been made to provide for a light lunch at this affair.

One of the big features of the program will be the formal dinner dance in the Oliver hotel on Thursday night. The services of Charlie Davis and his orchestra from Indianapolis have been engaged this night. Davis possesses the reputation of having the best dance orchestra in Indiana. Its appearance at this function will add greatly to the attractiveness of the program. Arrangements have been made with the Oliver hotel management to have the tables so placed that there will be plenty of room for dancing.

The Senior Ball will be held in the Palais Royale on Friday night. Don Bestor with Benson's Terrace Gardens orchestra of Chicago will play from 9:30 p. m. to 3:30 a. m. Favors and programs will be given out at the Ball.

The patrons and patronesses for the Senior Ball are: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. Knute K. Rockne, Professor and Mrs. Joseph Reichert and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coughlin.

Saturday afternoon the seniors will entertain their guests at the Indiana State Track Meet on Cartier field, in which the following prominent schools will take part: Indiana, Purdue, Butler, Wabash, De Pauw and several others. Saturday night the Blackstone theater of South Bend will put on a special program of entertainment. Tickets for this attraction will be given out next week.

The sale of tickets has been much larger than was at first estimated; it is expected that close to 200 couples will attend the ball. It (Continued on page 4)

Monogram Club to Give Formal Dance

The monogram club at a special meeting last evening in Sorin hall decided upon a Monogram formal dance which is to be given on May 26 at the Palais Royale. Harry Denny and his orchestra will play. Minor monogram men will be permitted to attend the dance, but they cannot extend an invitation to a friend, as can the major letter men. Monogram men living in South Bend and the vicinity will also be invited.

KNIGHTS WILL HEAR MILROY AT BANQUET

CHICAGO, LAWYER AND FR.
CAVANAUGH WILL SPEAK AT INITIATION BANQUET.

One of the finest programs that a Knights of Columbus lecturer has ever arranged is announced for the initiation banquet to be given Sunday evening in the Oliver hotel. William J. Milroy, a prominent Chicago attorney active in political circles in the Windy City and a former Notre Dame man, and Rev. John Cavanaugh, C. S. C., have been secured as speakers; while Professor George N. Shuster will officiate as toastmaster.

On the program besides these well-known men are Charles Butterworth, who will be prepared with a humorous charge; Dick Griffin, who will sing some popular solos, and Harry Denny and his orchestra.

This will be the last representative get-together the local knights will have, and a very large attendance is anticipated. Reservations, however, are being made for only 225 and those who desire to have one saved should purchase their ticket immediately from the lecturer, Harry McQuire in Walsh hall, or from the other knights in charge.

SOPHS. DRAW FOR ROOMS.

Mark Mooney, president of the Sophomore class announced that the Sophomores will draw for their next year's room numbers today at 12:30 in the north room of the library. All Sophomores who intend to change locations on the campus from one hall to another will have to draw their numbers at this meeting.

THE 1924 DOME ON CAMPUS TODAY

FATHER WALSH PRESENTED WITH FIRST COPY OF ANNUAL DELIVERED AT N. D.

The Dome of '24 will be distributed today. Late yesterday evening a motor-van from Chicago arrived on the campus bearing 1,500 copies of the year book, packed in cases containing 150 copies each. The van left the bindery in Chicago early Wednesday and the Domes were on the campus one day in advance of the date set for distribution.

One copy of the Dome has been on the campus for several days. Father Walsh, president of the University, and to whom the Dome was dedicated, was one of the first to see the book, and he seemed much pleased with it.

A wealth of color arising in the opening section of the book, and running through the scenic section, the elaborate athletic division, and the new "Notre Dame Life" section, makes the Dome this year the most artistic that has appeared on the campus in years. Artistry of detail has not been overlooked. Arrangement of senior and junior photographs; the "color-frame" given to each class president and his "lady"; the paneling of the class officers against the distinctive background typically "Notre Dame"; the hall groups and hall scenes and the section and division pages all reflect great credit on the art staff of the book. Many new features, both in content and style of make-up, keep the interest from the opening page, through the six books and the advertising section to the "final glimpse of the Dome rising above the treetops."

The Dome will be distributed beginning this morning at 8 o'clock and continue through the morning and afternoon. Distribution will be from each residence hall. Day-students will receive their Domes from Father Holderith's office; Brownson and Carroll from the Dome office behind Corby Hall. In Walsh, Corby, Sorin, Badin, Freshman and Sophomore halls the Dome will be distributed from one central room. The number of this room is marked on the sign in each hall. All Domes not already paid for, either by cash or through the secretary's office, will be released upon presentation of a note from Father Boland. Father Boland's office will be open all day Thursday for this modotation.

The Dome staff is seeking the co-operation of every student to have the distribution of the Dome completed before Sunday. As many as possible are asked to get their copies today (Thursday) when the offices will be open all day. On Friday and Saturday certain hours will be appointed for distribution.

K. of C. to Give First Free Dance

Preliminary preparations were made at the Knights of Columbus meeting Tuesday evening for the first free dance in the history of the Notre Dame council. According to present plans this dance will be given at the Oliver hotel ball room, and will be informal. Either Harry Denny's Collegians or the Big Five orchestra will play the dances. Admission will be for only the knights of the Notre Dame council. June 7 was set as a tentative date.

Eugene Fogarty was appointed the general chairman of the committee on arrangements and music. John James, Joseph Sheehan and Thomas Hodgson were named as the committee on arrangements. John Hurley, Vernon Richard and John Stanton are the members of the music committee.

The above is a cut of the '24 Dome. It is made up in an antique brown, with a bronze design and the University seal. The cover was made in Chicago by the Malloy Company who manufactures them by a special secret process.

VISITORS AND VITUPERATION.

America is continually being visited by eminent Europeans who no sooner than they walk down the gang plank off the trans-Atlantic steamers, begin exploding their theories upon the gullible inhabitants of this country. One of these recent visitors is Bertrand Russell, a British philosopher, mathematician, and socialist, and he avers that America will soon rule the world, with Europe and Asia as subject provinces. The underlying issue of his statement, not unlike the comments of other European visitors, is purely psychological. He is trying to flatter us, as it were, by telling us how powerful we are; and then while we are supposed to gloat over his deceitful praise, he intends to inject into us a bit of his propaganda against France, the nation which today can dictate to all of Europe.

He continues: "The one immediate thing the United States can do to help Europe is to ask France to pay the debt to the Americans. If France pays it she will be financially crippled; if she doesn't it will damage her international credit. Either way it will check France's mounting armaments which are menacing Europe. This is what I mean by the future world dominance of the United States. It can today conceivably make France a subject province. Since the United States wants to lend money and all other countries want to borrow, Europe and Asia must eventually become economically independent. When no country can make war without the support of America there will be a certain kind of peace."

Russell, it can plainly be seen, is taking the same attitude other Britishers do. England is and has been for centuries the mistress of the sea. But with recent developments, the aeroplane is being made far superior to the bulky battleships as a war-time asset, and France today has the most powerful and best equipped air force. England cannot tolerate France's dictating, simply because France has the air-fleet strength. England wants to ruin France's credit so that France will be compelled to stop building the aeroplanes; England, then, will step in and occupy the position France does now. Just a bit of the old English diplomacy.

The future world dominance of the United States is merely a fantastic dream of Russell's—probably done for effect. Americans never could hope to become the leaders of the world, and would not want to be; but even if they did want to, they would not attain the leadership by lending their money.

This is so, because for every dollar that would be lent, that dollar or the equivalent plus interest, would have to be paid back. In most every instance it is not the dollar plus the interest that would be paid back, but it would be the equivalent of the dollar plus the interest,—or merchandise of all kinds. Naturally, if we continue lending and expect the debts to be paid, we will, in time, be doing nothing but importing from our debtors to help them meet their obligations. And while we are enabling them to pay off their debts, we will be aiding them to revive their industries and to compete with us in foreign markets at the expense of freezing out our own industries at home and abroad.

ROMANCE IN SCIENCE

Students and professors at the University of Illinois have succeeded in doing a revolutionary thing. Not in the line of philosophy or cosmology, but in the manner of radio telephonic reception.

If what they claim is true then their new system will bring in all of the modern broadcasting stations with practically no static or other interference.

In other words, much of the romance will be taken out of radio. There will no longer be the "carrier waves," which sound like a conglomeration of cat fights and riveting gangs. The growls, which have for so long made radio an elusive thing, will be gone from the magnovox.

The device, the Illinois officials claim, responds only to the modulated frequencies of the voice or music, irregardless of any other wave or audiofrequency.

This is a natural outcome of the development of the science. As the different sciences are developed much of the romance in them passes. But the passing of this romance results only from the wider and commercial use of the radio. Things in general use can seldom retain their romantic qualities.

Official Bulletins

ANNOUNCEMENT—Registration for next year's courses in the College of Commerce will be continued until Saturday, May 17.

SENIORS—In order to insure the correct spelling of your name on the diploma it will be necessary for you to call at the Director of Studies' office immediately and fill out the special form for this purpose.

CAPS AND GOWNS—The last day for seniors to be measured for caps and gowns is May 20. Measurements will be taken in room 246 Sprin hall.

DAILY MEN—There will be a meeting of all members of the reportorial and editorial staffs in the Daily office, Walsh basement, at 12:30 Friday noon. Attendance is required.

From Off Stage

BLACKSTONE—"Modern Matrimony" and vaudeville.

OLIVER—Beginning Sunday, May 18, "Blossom Time."

ORPHEUM—"After Six Days."

PALACE—"Wild Oranges," and vaudeville.

"Modern Matrimony" a comedy, featuring Owen Moore and Alice Lake, is the Blackstone's offering for the latter half of the week. This is, of course, as the name Owen Moore connotes, an uproarious comedy, and incidentally the theme of the story is the ups and downs of a young married couple. Brownlee's Hickville Follies is scheduled as a headliner of the usual three ply vaudeville entertainment.

The Oliver will be closed until Sunday, opening with "Blossom Time." The original New York cast is still travelling with the show, after two years in New York, six months in Philadelphia, and six more in Chicago.

The Orpheum will continue to show "After Six Days" a screen presentation of old testament history. This is about as interesting as a succession of mere historical episodes can be. The continuity is sufficiently good that even a Mohammedan could sit through it without becoming hopelessly lost in the maze of Biblical narratives.

The Palace will exhibit "Wild Oranges" with Virginia Valli. Of course anything else it can offer will be totally eclipsed by the arrival of Margaret Young, the comedienne of Brunswick record fame. If Miss Young, in person, can delight her audience as she does with her records, this act alone will be worth the box office toll.—P. C. M.

At Other Colleges

PURDUE—The fifteenth annual production of the Purdue Harlequin club entitled "Two Little Girls in Blue" was recently given in Fort Wayne before a capacity house. This was the first time since 1917 that a Harlequin show has been presented in Fort Wayne.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY—Recently a boat was chartered by the commerce students and classes were called off for the day, and the collegians took their annual trip up the Hudson river for an outing. The affair was a huge success and no accidents marred the trip.

MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY—Lantern Night which will be held during the latter part of the month promises to be successful. All committees have been appointed and the work is progressing rapidly, and the many young women of the university are anxiously anticipating the arrival of the big night. This is an annual affair at the university.

MICHIGAN AGRICULTURE COLLEGE—The track team is training hard for its meet with the Notre Dame aggregation which is slated for Saturday. The half-mile race is looked forward to as both the Irish warriors and the Ags have good men entered in this event.

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY—Freshmen rules exist no longer for with the coming of spring the yearlings enjoy a few more privileges and liberties. Many ceremonies have been planned by the freshmen to celebrate the occasion.

THE OPEN FORUM

To the presidents of campus clubs and organizations:

Early this year, the president of the Student Activities Council, in an attempt to alleviate the over-organization state existing on the campus, appointed a committee of one to make recommendations for the curtailment of Notre Dame clubs. The heads of the various organizations were called together and informed that the S. A. C. would refuse recognition to any campus club that failed to measure up to the standard of a reasonable amount of worth-while activity.

In order that proper recommendations may be drafted for the S. A. C. to act upon, the officers of each campus club are requested to file a report of their respective club's activities during the past year. This report must be in the hands of the committee not later than May 25. Any club which does not comply with this request will automatically waive the right to recognition on the campus.

Exceptions to this rule: Glee club, Band, Orchestra, Shakespeare club, Drama club, Knights of Columbus, Monogram club, St. Thomas Philosophical society, the A. I. E. E. and Minor Sports clubs.

N.D. Nine Prepares for Illinois Game

Coach Keogan and his Notre Dame baseball squad are completing preparations for two of the most tasking assignments that have yet appeared on the local diamond. Notre Dame will have everything to gain by keeping up its percentage of victories with a win over Illinois and St. Viators. The Indians will be played at Urbana tomorrow as one of the features of the Illinois interscholastic meet and the St. Viators aggregation will be engaged Saturday afternoon at Kankakee.

Both games will require the best baseball that the Blue and Gold squad can produce. While Illinois dropped Iowa on the short end of a 6 to 4 count this week the Suckers did not display their best game and their fight to keep their slate clean will be carried through the week which calls for games with Notre Dame and Wisconsin on two successive days. Illinois will be occupied principally with winning over Wisconsin on Saturday in order to retain their place at the top of the conference league. The Badger's win over Michigan this week indicates a sudden rise in the effectiveness of the Cardinals. The Badgers intense rivalry with Illinois will also complicate the situation for the Lundymen who are anxious to win from Notre Dame, another member of the Sucker's list of an-

WALSH-BADIN GAME TODAY FEATURES LEAGUE BATTLE.

First place in the Interhall league will be decided temporarily when Badin and Walsh meet on the Brownson diamond this afternoon. Walsh is leading the teams at present with a perfect record, but a defeat by Badin would put it into second place. Both squads have presented strong pitching staffs and a crew of heavy sluggers. In the only game played between the Interhall teams this week, Corby defeated Sorin on the Brownson diamond.

After trailing Sorin for four innings, Corby scored four runs in the fifth inning to tie the score, and then added three more in the sixth giving it a lead which was too much for the Corby squad to overcome, the final count being 8 to 7. The victory put Corby into fifth place, while the contest was Sorin's fifth consecutive loss.

The contest was one of the closest to be seen this season, the two runs scored by the Sorin crew in the last inning falling short of a tie by one point. John McMullen of Sorin hit the only home run of the game.

Notre Dame Meets M.A.C. Team Next

The last dual meet on the Notre Dame track schedule will be run off against the Michigan Aggies at Lansing, Saturday afternoon. Coach Rockne will probably take a large squad to the Wolverine capital for the run with the Aggies.

The Wolverine squad staged a meet with Ames last Saturday in which the Michigan lads lost by the overwhelming count of 102 to 24. Coach Rockne does not look for any strenuous competition from the Farmers, although Coach Young has several performers on his squad that will make it an interesting meet for some of the varsity. Captain Kennedy will meet Captain Baguely in the mile run. The diminutive Aggie miler gave an impressive showing when the Michigan team appeared on Cartier field last May. Their dash men are reputed to be negotiating the stretch in good time although the Layden-Barr duo will undoubtedly be able to handle these events in finished style.

The meet will precede the gigantic state meet by one week and the main objective of Coach Rockne from now until the last event is run off on Cartier field, May 24, will be to win the Indiana intercollegiate title for the ninth consecutive time. The Irish are going to be hard pressed that afternoon by the Butler college aggregation

DANNY MCGOWAN TRAINS FOR OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Danny McGowan will leave this week for Culver where he will begin training in preparation for the amateur trials to be held in Boston, the latter part of this month to determine the personnel of the American Olympic boxing team.

McGowan, who is prominent in boxing circles at the university, earned the right to enter the trials by winning the final bout of the Indiana-Kentucky boxing tournament at Indianapolis last month, which was staged to determine who should represent the two states in the respective weight divisions in the final trials. In view of the fact that high class competition will be met in the Boston trials, McGowan has mapped out a strenuous training schedule, which the excellent predictions based on the performance of McGowan at the cadet school will facilitate.

McGowan has given some very noteworthy exhibitions of boxing in the flyweight class, in which division he won his place in the Boston trials. The diminutive Notre Dame arena king, is a fleet footed man in the ring. He continually employs his footwork to the best advantage and makes his presence felt

Frosh Squad Meets Kazoo Normal Team

Twenty-two members of the freshman track team, led by Captain Charlie Judge, and accompanied by Coach Ray Hoyer, will leave on the 10 o'clock interurban tomorrow morning for Kalamazoo, where they will engage in an outdoor dual track meet with Western State Normal tomorrow afternoon.

The Kalamazoo cinder squad will be remembered because of its victory over the frosh crew last winter in an indoor dual meet in the local gym, winning the meet by five points after nosing out Notre Dame in the mile relay by three yards. Two weeks ago the Western normal was defeated by the Wash varsity by only three points. The relay team also finished first

IN MEMORY OF NOTRE DAME'S DEAD HEROES

A monument to the men of Notre Dame who died in the World War is being erected in the form of a memorial arch and door on the east side of the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart. This memorial was first planned five years ago when the Ex-Service Men's club was founded. At that time they began a drive to raise the necessary funds for the erection, but it was not until the Notre Dame post No. 286, of the Veterans of the Foreign Wars revived the interest in the movement again that the plans finally materialized. These men completed the drive, and secured some money from the University to make up the requisite amount to begin the work. It is estimated that the monument will cost $5,000.

The architects are Professors Francis Kervick and Vincent Fagin of the architectural department of the University.

Two bronze tablets, one on each side of the door, are to contain the names of the forty-six men who gave their lives.

Notre Dame Golfers Leave for Chicago

The Notre Dame golf team will leave this afternoon for the second game of their 1924 schedule with the DePaul University in Chicago tomorrow. The Irish squad will meet the Chicagoans on the Edgewater golf club course.

The Irish quartet after their unexpected showing against Northwestern has made lengthy preparations for the match with DePaul. The competition that will be offered by the Windy City golfers will be greater than that of the Purple since the DePaul quartet is captained by one of the leading contenders for amateur golf honors in the country. Dave O'Connor, who leads the DePaul team has figured prominently in Illinois golf tournaments as well as national competition.

Saturday's match with Loyola is not expected to task the capabilities of the Irish squad to any great extent as the north side collegians are introducing golf at Loyola for the first time this year.

The following men will make the trip: Captain Jack Adams, George Ward, Tyril Bulger, Joe Foglia and James Corbett. The members of the team will attend the Glee club concert in Chicago, Friday night.

N. D. PREPARES FOR ILLINOIS.

cient rivals. in favor of the visitors from South Bend. With a hard game looming for the following day with St. Viators, the mound duties are going to task the reserves of the Irish pitching staff.

Lundgren used two pitchers to oust Iowa from the grasp of victory. Wally Roettger, the Indian ace, went wild in the opening frames and Iowa pounced upon him for three runs. Kinderman who replaced Roettger, held the Iowans in check for three innings and when he dropped in the eighth, Iowa came around with two runs. The Urbana nine did not play through the nine innings without some ragged fielding creeping into their work. With Nolan, Prendergrast, Sheehan and Pearson making up a tight infield for Notre Dame, the Illini batsmen will have to hit the ball hard to get away from the infielders, but high drives to the garden are, as good as out with Vergara, Dunne and Crowley playing up to their usual form.

Lundgren will have to conserve on his pitching staff in order to be in shape for the Badgers. Lefty O'Connor has not yet taken the mound since his arm went out. Roettger, who has been receiving the burden of the pitching work all season will hardly be used against the Irish if he is to whirl against Wisconsin Saturday. Kinderman, the next best choice on the Indian staff, will in all probability open hostilities.

A hard game is looked for at St. Viators on Saturday. The second edition of Notre Dame will be out to gain a decision over the Geogonites. Their hard hitting and fast fielding have thus far served them in good stead, insofar as they have not lost a game. The personnel of the squad making the trip was not available at press time.

The Indianapolis school has a coterie of star performers in Griggs, Woods, Doolittle and Gray. Their meet with DePaul did not indicate that they had any option on the field events, Jones taking the vault and broad jump in easy fashion although tying with Woods for first place in the high jump at 5 feet, 10 inches.
