PROCESSIONAL

Marche Triomphale Sigfrid Karg-Elert

Laudate Dominum J. P. Sweelinck

*Praise the Lord, all you nations;
laud him, all you peoples.* For his loving-kindness toward us is great, and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever. Alleluia!

Worthy Is Christ Richard Hillert

Refrain: *This is the feast of victory for our God.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.*

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God.

Power, riches, wisdom, and strength, and honor, blessing, and glory are his.

*Sing with all the people of God,
and join in the hymn of all creation:
Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen.*

For the Lamb who was slain has begun his reign, Alleluia.

Sine Nomine R. Vaughan Williams

Come Holy Spirit, Come David C. Isele

*Come, thou Holy Spirit, come!
And from thy celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!*
*Come thou Father of the poor!
Come, thou source of all our store.
Come, within our bosoms shine.*
*Thou, of comforters the best;
Thou, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below;*

*In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.*
*O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill!*
*Where thou art not, man hath naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.*
*Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away;*

*Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.*
*On the faithful, who adore
And confess thee, evermore
In thy sevenfold gift descend;*
*Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them thy salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end.
Amen. Alleluia.*

Psalm XXIII Benedetto Marcello

Te Deum David C. Isele

*You are God; we praise you;
You are the Lord: we acclaim you;
You are the eternal Father;
All creation worships you.
To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise;
"Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory."

The glorious company of apostles praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you;
Father of majesty unbounded, true and only Son,
Worthy of all worship, and the Holy Spirit,
advocate and guide.

You Christ, are the king of glory, eternal Son of the Father.
When you became man to set us free*

*You did not disdain the Virgin's womb.
You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come, and be our judge.
Come, then Lord, sustain your people, brought with the price of your own blood and bring us with your saints to everlasting glory.

Save your people, Lord, and bless your inheritance.
Govern and uphold them now and always.
Day by day we bless you;
We praise your name forever.
Today, Lord, keep us from all sin.
Have mercy on us.
Lord, show us your love and mercy
For we put our trust in you.
In you Lord is our hope, may we never be confounded.*

HYMN

God of Our Fathers

text: Daniel G. Roberts
tune: National Hymn

1. God of our Fa - - thers, whose al- mighty hand
Leads forth in beau - - ty all the star- ry band
Of shin- ing worlds in splen- dor thro' the skies,
Our grate- ful songs be- fore your throne a- rise.

2. Your love divine has led us in the past;
In this free land by you our lot is cast;
Oh, be our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay;
Your Word our law, your paths our chosen way.

PRAYER OF BLESSING

3. From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Make your strong arm our ever sure defense.
Your true religion in our hearts increase;
Your bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.
4. Refresh your people on their toilsome way;
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with heav'n-born love and grace
Until at last we meet before your face.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is seen and unseen.

On the third day He rose again
in fulfillment of the Scriptures;
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God,
Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
one in Being with the Father.
Through Him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
He came down from heaven:

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son
He is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.

All bow at the following words up to: and became man.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

by the power of the Holy Spirit
He was born of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.

For our sake He was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered, died, and was buried.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Academic Costume Code

The Academic Costume Code

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the early days of the oldest universities. Academic dress finds its source chiefly in ecclesiastical wear, although mediaeval scholars tended to adopt a collegiate costume. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates and Bachelors" of the University of Coimbra (Portugal) wear gowns. Beginning with the second half of the 14th century, civilian collegiate costume was specified in various regulations of the universities. European institutions continue to show great diversity in their specifications of academic wear.

In American colleges and universities, the academic costume is prescribed by the American Council of Education, and its present form was adopted in 1932. The first suggestion for a uniform code was made in May, 1895, following an educational conference at Columbia University. In 1902, the Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costumes was created. It codified the 1895 rules and its legal firm serves as a clearinghouse and "repository" for official university and college colors, costumes and insignia.

The present academic dress consists of gown, hood and cap with the pattern and trimmings listed below. Exceptions have been granted to specific universities upon request.

GOWNS: Black cotton with long pointed sleeves for the Bachelor's Degree, long closed sleeves (with a slit for the arms) for the Master's Degree, and bell-shaped open sleeves for the Doctor's Degree. The Bachelor's and Master's gowns do not have trimmings. The Doctor's gown is faced down the front with black velvet and there are three bars of velvet across the sleeves.

HOODS: Black in all cases. For the Master's it is three and one-half feet long and closed at the end. The Doctor's hood is four feet long with panels at the sides. All hoods are lined with the official color or colors of the college or university which conferred the highest degree. The edging of the hood is velvet and three inches and five inches in width for the Master's and Doctor's degrees, respectively, while its color is distinctive of the subject field.

CAPS: Black cotton and stiffened into the so-called mortarboard style. Each cap has a long tassel fastened to the middle point of the top of the cap. The tassel color denotes the subject field. The Doctor's cap may have a tassel of gold thread. University administrators may also have a tassel of gold thread.
