

CAMPUS BY-PATHS

Behold today what your fellows contribute. It is, I assure you, a most indiscriminate selection. My part in it is but receptive; on other days I follow an editorial pursuit, shaping this mailed mass to the best advantage. And so I reach into the pile, and draw forth these several bits deserving of slight comment.

Hard Times for Tom?
"Dear Mr. Grundy:
"It is rumored that "Angel" Tom Donovan has become quite popular and distinguished in the ole home town. In fact, the rumor contends that the Chatsworth Plaindealer has this to say about him: 'Thomas Donovan, a Chatsworth boy who is attending Notre Dame University, competed for and won a prize at a Hard Times party given in South Bend a few evenings ago and got his picture in one of the papers there.'
"Who says Chatsworth isn't on the map?"
"MONSIEUR X."

Uneasy Rests the Head That Is The Dome
"Sir: Permit me to report a recent speech of Jack Scallan's:
"The Dome comes out on May 15 if the printer and I have to sleep with the presses during the last month! Is this an indication that business is pressing?"
"DOME-SUBSCRIBER."

He Will Associate With Those Foreigners.
"Say:
"Why haven't you told us anything of the activities of Herman Bittner? Surely you know of his philosophical traits, his day dogging habits, his large books of poetry, and his general smile. Only the other day I saw him with De Maupassant."
"ADMIRER."

When Grundy Breaks The Ice
"Mister: I have noticed in the University catalogue that swimming is one of the sports to be enjoyed in Notre Dame's two lakes. I realize that that had no reference to the campus of last week, but I am curious to know when the season begins."
"FROSH FISH."

Is "Kentucky Club" Still Watched?
"Mr. By-Paths:
"Here is one of my own Honorable-Mentioned. Reform or deform it if you will. It concerns Larry Luigart, one of Kentucky's finest specimens, coming from Lexington, the home of all thoroughbreds. He is a nightly visitor at the South Bend Skating Emporium, as well as an accomplished dancer. Larry is said to be filling space as Still House Watch for the Kentucky Club."
"PLAYMATE."

No—Worse
"Mr. Grundy:
"Won't you please give Miss Grumpy a more pleasant name? Whenever I read about her my mind concentrates on none other than the supreme Flora Finch. Surely she is not like her."
"INTERESTED IMOGENE."

All Lenten Laurels Have Been Borrowed
"Sir: A laurel for Hugh Blunt, Public Custodian of Laurels. For whether you know it or not Hugh has quit smoking during Lent—after doing it continuously for four years. Bud vows that he has taken more seriously to Beemans, which he has been chewing ever since he was two years old—quite a stretch."
"BILIOUS."

The Oracle Speaks:
"Reader: Just to show you that I am able to write a letter too, I add this. I wish to thank the contributors for the things printed, and ask assistance for some future Contributors Day. I likewise thank, for you,
MR. GRUNDY."

IRISH RELAY TEAM ENTERS K. OF C. MEET

Invitation Meet Will Be Held in New York Friday Night; Yearlings to Meet Kalamazoo.

The Blue and Gold of Notre Dame will be seen in action once again this winter when Coach Rockne's crack relay team toes the mark at the Knights of Columbus Invitation meet in the 22nd Regiment Armory at New York on Friday night.

The Irish quartet which gave such a superb demonstration of speed in the Wisconsin meet last Saturday will face the fast teams of Holy Cross, Georgetown, Boston college and Fordham in a race for the Catholic relay championship. The distance of the run will be 1600 meters.

Two more special meets still remain on the Irish indoor program, the first of which will be the Louisville Invitation meet. Notre Dame will run a match relay race with Yale.

The Notre Dame yearlings are scheduled for a dual meet with Western State Normal of Kalamazoo in the local gym at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The frosh have assembled a formidable track team this year and should be able to give the visiting school teachers a fast run for honors.

Father D. O'Donnell to Address Knights

SHELL WAS VICTOR

Because of a misinterpretation of a telegram, the Sunday DAILY left out the name of Maurice M. Schell, as the winner of the 145-pound class boxing bout with Iowa State College, in the dual meet held last Friday. This bout was erroneously credited to Frankie Cahill, who did not make the trip.

BURKE IS NEW HEAD OF THE SCRIBBLERS

Harry McGuire Resigns Because of Ill Health; Patrick is Made Member.

Joseph P. Burke was elected President of The Scribblers to succeed Harry A. McGuire, who was forced because of ill health to resign his position at last night's meeting of the club.

Following the club's discussion of McGuire's resignation, and its final acceptance, John Brennan made a speech as the representative of the club. The members then proceeded to the balloting upon the presidency, from which Joseph Burke emerged the victor. His short speech of acceptance was followed by the reading of papers by James Armstrong, Gerald Holland, and Harry McGuire.

It was reported by the secretary that the Drama club had rejected The Scribblers' offer to write three one-act plays for production by the Drama club.

The first action of the meeting was to elect Corbin Patrick, '26, to membership in The Scribblers to fill an existing vacancy.

The Seminar is in charge of Father Cunningham, who is head of the Department of Education.

According to Tom O'Connor, Saddle stayed nine rounds with Jack Dempsey with only three days' training.

Drama Club Rejects Scribblers' Proposal

At the regular meeting of the Drama club it was decided to temporarily reject the proposal of The Scribblers to write three one-act plays which the club was to produce and to put on instead a three-act play. The title of the play which the club is to put on is "The Servant in the House."

A motion was carried to hold a meeting every other Tuesday night at which members of the club will provide the entertainment. The director appointed the entertainers for the next meeting. It was also decided to make application for membership in the Little Theatre guild.

The director discussed the play which will be produced and said that it will be put on about the middle of May. He also read the script for the Drama club's act in the All-campus carnival and appointed the cast.

Coach Rockne has been in conference all day with officials at the University of Iowa, but refuses to comment. This was the substance of a report received over the News-Times wire at press time last night.

Because of the persistent rumors that the Hawkeyes are bidding for his services to fill the position of athletic director in place of Coach

BROWNSON WINS INTERHALL MEET

Brownson hall won first place in the interhall indoor track meet when the finals were held in the gym Sunday morning, with a total of 34 points. Howard Jones who recently resigned, Rockne's visit to the Iowa city has aroused much interest and speculation.

Earlier in the day Rockne would make no statement other than to say his visit was a "business mission." A meeting of the board in of athletics at the University of Iowa had been scheduled for yesterday afternoon.

From Off Stage

AT THE THEATRES
 Palace: "Her Temporary Husband."
 Oliver: "Judgment of the Storm."
 Orpheum: "Fashion Row."
 LaSalle: "Monna Vanna."
 Blackstone: "The Stranger."

At the Blackstone
 Greater love no man hath, than to lay down life for his adopted daughter, unless it be for his mother-in-law. "Strangers" stresses the fact that even beneath the tattered shirt of a bar-room soak there may beat a heart of fourteen karat gold. We firmly resolve henceforth to respectfully offer our seat in the street car to every down-and-outer we see clutching a strap.

These courtroom scenes have, of late, blasted our faith in the judicial branch of the government. We are convinced that justice is not only blind, but deaf and dumb as well. The wrong man has been convicted in eight out of ten cases by actual count. Something should be done about it at once.

This plot is out of the ordinary, and succeeds in being fairly interesting, in an O. Henry sort of a way. Betty Compton, Richard Dix, Lewis Stone, and Tully Marshall compose the cast. It looked good from the outside, and after seeing it we were able to corroborate our outside impression.

The California Ambassadors are lifted from the all-embracing class of "pretty good" by Irma and Lucille Robertson, who, according to Anna Pavlowa and Florence Ziegfeld, are the cleverest stage children in the business. You will without doubt agree with Anna and Flo.

Two other acts and a clever comedy complete the bill.

P. M. C.

At the Palace
 What a difference just a few days make! If we were to plot a graph to represent the respective qualities of the last few weeks' shows at the Palace, the result would be an encouraging upward curve. While there is still room for improvement, they're getting warmer—and who knows? The next one might be pretty hot.

First in importance and last on the program is the long-awaited and much press-agented Olga Myra, with her Southland Syncopaters. Miss Myra plays the violin well and dances very cleverly, while attired in a costume designed to prevent any cramping of her style. The syncopaters are fairly good.

George Armstrong gives the impression that he was just passing by, and dropped in at the party to sing a few songs. George has what the character schools call "personality plus," which, added to his good voice and some clever songs, make the act a success.

Watson, the hammer! Rice and Werner prove that it takes more than black faces and loud stockings to make an act funny. The humor is very crude and produces on the subject the sensation of being tickled by a shovel.

Miss Jeanette Childs is rather a good comedian, with some new songs and a knack of imitating Charlie Chaplin. Her act is well received.

The Russian Trio consists of equilibrists who balance everything but the Steinway on their rather generous chins. A dash of Russian comedy is included to add zest to the performance.

And now we come to the moving picture. "Her Temporary Husband" is a farce, and what's more it's a good one. The plot is thin, the action is fast, and the laughs are plentiful. What do you want for 50 cents? E. C.

Spring Weather Due on St. Patrick's Day

When does spring begin? is a question that has been perplexing many for years. The weather man and the almanac always disagree, and "The White Plague," winter, as frequently upsets the calculations of both.

And now another authority appears and would tell us the day that ushers in that retiring season. "Sure, St. Patrick's Day is the first day of spring, and it would take an Orangeman to deny it," said Mike, the natatorium swabber. "And haven't I been here long enough to know. Just as sure as the 17th of March is a holiday—I'm that confident of what I say. Why, anyone that's read the life of St. Patrick knows that he never was fond of the cold. And if he wants anything at all it's a nice warm day for his birthday. He was always a man that liked to fight against odds and is there anything harder to lick than an Indiana winter?"

Mike's claims will no doubt receive recognition among the student body. Any theory is welcome enough that promises to convert the white wastes of Indiana into a verdant land between today and the 17th of March.

INTERHALL GAMES WERE POSTPONED

Other Gym Events Prevent Last Sunday's Loop Games; Day-Badin Contest Tonight.

On account of the inter-hall track meet, held in the gymnasium Sunday morning, and because of the Minim track meet held in the gym that afternoon, the five interhall basketball games scheduled for Sunday were postponed until later in the week. Carroll is ahead at present and the cup will go to that team if it can win one of its two remaining games.

The Day-Badin contest to be held in the gym this evening at 8:00 is one of the important games to be played this week, as the two teams are tied for second place.

The rectors of the halls should arrange the games to be played on dates convenient to the teams. The following teams will meet during the week:

- Brownson vs. Cadillac.
- Wlash vs. Corby.
- Day vs. Badin.
- Carroll vs. Sorin.
- Freshman vs. Sophomore.

Denny's Orchestra on Vaudeville Program

Harry Denny's Oliver Hotel orchestra, which will present a feature on the Day Students' vaudeville show, to be given in Washington hall, March 26, is composed of Notre Dame students. Harry Denny is a graduate of the Hoynes College of Law, and at present is a practicing attorney in South Bend.

Victor Labedz, a product of Portsmouth, Ohio, will appear at the piano. Frank Aley, Escanaba, Mich., and Francis Walthers, Merrill, Wis., will provide plenty of jazz on their saxophones, while Bob Stone, a Cleveland boy, will strum the banjo. Donald Kenney, Delavan, Wis., will play the bass, and Norbert Engles, Green Bay, Wis., will appear with his trombone. John Curtis, Jr., Sandusky, Ohio, will play the violin with Mr. Denny, and Francis Howland, of Streator, Ill., will appear at the drums.

The Oliver Hotel orchestra has made special arrangements for the presentation of the latest dance numbers, and will render their selections in an original fashion. Mr. Denny receives regularly the latest records recorded by Isham Jones and other Brunswick artists and will play these at the Day Student show before they are placed on sale.

The orchestra has received several offers for long bookings but has refused them. The Redpath Chautauqua was anxious to get the organization booked on its circuit, and the Carleton Terrace of Cleveland attempted several times to bring Mr. Denny and his associates to their fashionable establishment.

Prof. McGregor's Talk Thrills The Villagers

"If I could bring a football team of Maori here, I assure you those 260-pound Islanders would show Notre Dame a thing or two in straight football," Prof. McGregor told The Villagers at their monthly supper meeting held last night in the Chamber of Commerce.

This traveled professor contributed several other surprises in his very interesting talk on the natives and islands of Polynesia, treating of his experience with the customs, murderers, and fire-walkers of the islands. This talk proved to be a complete success and will serve as the basis of comparison for future dinner meetings.

More than 30 members were present. It was announced that the next meeting would be Guest Night. Non-important discussion occupied the remainder of the business part of the meeting.

World Court Question Debated at St. Mary's

A debate on the World Court question was held at St. Mary's Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock by the Notre Dame debating team. The affirmative team won the argument by a close margin of 24 to 21 votes. The judges of the debate were the Senior class of St. Mary's and Father Bolger's Politics class of the same institution.

The members of the winning team were: Paul Breen, Philip Moore, Ben Piser, and Sydney Eder, alternate. The negative team: Ray Cunningham, William Coyne, Mark Nolan, and Paul Harrington, alternate.

The members of both teams were treated to a delicious chicken dinner, which is customarily given by the faculty of St. Mary's.

Those desiring to render a program should communicate with J. P. Kochendorfer, 228 South Michigan street, or George Driscoll at 203 Corby.

JUNIORS ARE AGAIN URGED TO SECURE PROM TICKETS

The sale of tickets to the Junior Prom will in all probability be terminated before March 25, the date originally set for it to close. Only 235 tickets will be sold. To date the sale has been very lively, and with the number of senior reservations already made there is every likelihood of being sold out. The sale will be opened to seniors on March 18, at which time the tickets will be distributed to them in the order in which their names appear on the waiting list.

The chairman of the Ticket Committee therefore advises all juniors and seniors who plan to attend the Prom to see one of the following men immediately: William Hurley, Walsh; Milton Leach, Badin; Charles Donaghue, Brownson; John Neitzel, Day; John Dwyer and John Bartley, Corby.

The chairman of the Favors Committee announced that the contract for the girls' favors has been let, and that they will be the most useful ever given at any Notre Dame function.

ON THE LEVEL

Tom Leib placed fourth in the National A. A. U. championships at New York last Friday. Tom's best effort sent the shot a distance of 43 feet 6 1-2 inches. The winner was Ralph Hills of Princeton, who hurled the shot 47 feet, 11 inches for a new A. A. U. record.

The last refrain of a hectic basketball season in the Big Ten circles will be delivered this week and the Maroons up on the Midway already hear the tinkling of the conference basketball title.

The Maroons have between them an undisputed title, the Fighting Illini and the Badgers at Wisconsin. Illinois and Wisconsin are running neck and neck for second place, but with an evident ambition to swamp the hopes of the Maroons. Chicago has one remaining game and that with Wisconsin at Madison.

The Badgers in their own gym and with the home crowd, are apt to put the Maroons on skids as far as an undisputed title goes. But before that the Cardinals must face the champs of last year from Iowa.

Chicago's chances to take the title are very good. The Maroons have but one game to play and have lost only three games all season. Wisconsin has two games with a record of four losses behind them. If Wisconsin can win her two remaining games and see the Maroons drop into the four loss column, then there is going to be much rejoicing in Madison.

Pinkie Mitchell, who is boxing Wednesday night in the gym, is reported to be the senior welterweight of the world. Wednesday night is your opportunity.

WILLIAMS is a wonderfully popular shaving cream. Here's why:—It's heavier, faster-working lather, the way it lubricates the path of the razor and eliminates painful friction, the soothing ingredient which keeps the skin so smooth and cool even in daily shaving—these are qualities men like! They also like its purity—no artificial coloring. With the new Hinge-Cap, Williams is winning more friends than ever before. See if you ever used a shaving cream as good.
