

GOPHERS DROPPED BY IRISH, 11 TO 5

IRISH BATSMEN RUN WILD
WITH 14 HITS; MINNESOTA
HELPLESS AT PLATE

Notre Dame added another conference triumph to its string of Big Ten defeats when the Keoganites defeated the Minnesota nine 11 to 5 on Cartier field yesterday afternoon. The Gophers managed to shove five runs across the plate on loose fielding and a pair of errors. Magevney on the mound for Notre Dame had the Gophers puzzled all the way.

Notre Dame started the first inning with a crash when Lee on the mound for the Gophers was touched for five hits and six runs. Nine Irish batters faced the visiting twirler in the opening frame and an error, a walk, two singles and a three bagger helped to pile up five runs. Crowley's single scored Sheehan who got on the path through an error. Dunne singled scoring Farrell who had followed Sheehan with a walk. With two men on, Nolan drove one into deep center scoring Crowley and Dunne. Pearson and Magevney got on the bases with a single each and Prendergrast grounded to second where Magevney was out and Pearson came home.

Sheehan opened the second with a triple but was out at home when he tried to stretch it into a homer. Notre Dame idled till the sixth while Minnesota pushed in three. Two walks and a single put three men on the path when a bad throw from Pearson to second let Christgau and Ascher come home. Guzy scored on Ecklund's sacrifice fly. The Gophers took another whirl at the scoring in the seventh when Rasey and Guzy hit safely. A wild pitch advanced them and Ascher laid one down to Magevney. The Irish twirler delayed the play while Rasey raced home. Another error on Nolan at first scored Guzy and Magevney tightened and fanned the next two batters. Minnesota passed out in the eighth with two flies and a strike out.

Magevney and Prendergrast walked in the seventh to start the scoring. Sheehan singled scoring Magevney and a wild pitch let Prendergrast come home and advanced Sheehan to third. Vergara lined one to the second baseman and was out at first while Sheehan came home. Crowley singled but was caught at second when Dunne grounded to Ascher. Nolan came to bat and drove one to the football bleachers for a home run, scoring Dunne ahead of him. Silver drove a fast one through the short stop but Pearson ended the scoring when he grounded to Ecklund at first. Two more flies and an infield out set the Irish down when they came to bat for the last time. Umpire Ray called the game in the last of the eighth in order to give the Gophers time to catch a train.

Minnesota displayed weakness at bat with Magevney on the mound and they were able to gather only four hits for the afternoon's work. The Notre Dame twirler struck out 10 Gophers while the opposing pitcher was credited with one strike out. Notre Dame had an easy time at bat, hitting the ball at will, neither of the Minnesota twirlers having much in stock to puzzle the Slugging Irish nine.

Free Dance to Be Given by K. of C.

Saturday, June 7, was the date set for the Knights of Columbus free informal dance at a meeting of Notre Dame Council Tuesday night. The dance will be held at the Oliver and will be open to all Notre Dame knights. Music will be furnished by Harry Denny's orchestra.

Attorney Ed Doran, Dr. John Stoeckley and John Bertling of South Bend Council were present at the meeting and delivered short talks. The reports of the banquet and initiation committees were approved. Travelling cards were given the thirty-four new members of the organization who were initiated Sunday.

The evening was brought to a close with the serving of refreshments.

Fr. Miltner, Huston Speak at Banquet

McCready Huston, editorial writer and regular contributor to several national magazines, and Rev. Chas. Miltner, C. S. C., dean of the college of Arts and Letters, were the speakers at a banquet of the "Cubs" at the College Inn Tuesday night. Prof. Robert McAuliffe, foreign advertising manager of the News-Times, who was also scheduled to speak, was unable to attend on account of illness.

Huston, who was the first speaker, gave an interesting talk on the situations which a young journalist is likely to meet and how best to meet those situations. Father Milt-

FROSH NOMINATE S.A.C. MAN TODAY

JUNIORS AND SOPHOMORES
WILL NOMINATE MEN
NEXT MONDAY

Elections of members to the 1924-1925 S. A. C. will begin today when the primary for the class of 1927 nominee will be held at 12:30 in the south room of the library. The final election will be held there at the same hour tomorrow.

Election of one man as representative of the class of 1927 will give that class three men on the Council. Thomas Green, president of the class next year, will serve on the Council. John Reidy, freshman president the past year remains as a member.

Primaries and elections for next year's junior and senior members on the Council will be held Monday and Tuesday. The class of 1926 will meet on those days at 12:30 in the south room of the library, while the class of 1925 will convene at the same time in the north room.

The class of 1926 will choose two men to serve on the Council for two years and one man to serve one year.

The class of 1925 must nominate and elect seven men. One man will be elected at large to fill the unexpired term of Don Miller, who becomes senior class president. The other six will be apportioned, one man each from the colleges of liberal arts, law, commerce, science and engineering, and the day students will elect a man. Men must be nominated for these five places by students from the schools which the nominees would represent.

Monogram Men Plan for Annual Dance

The Monogram club will hold its annual formal dance on Monday, May 26, at the Palais Royale. In former years this dance has been exclusively for the members of the club; but this year the privilege of attending has been extended to the minor monogram men; the men who participated in the "Absurdities"; and in addition, to make the affair generally open to students, each monogram man has the privilege of inviting one guest.

Harry Denny's orchestra will furnish the music for the dances. Novelty programs have been ordered for the affair. In order that all arrangements may be completed, each monogram man is asked to turn in the name of his guest to Raymond Brady, chairman of the dance committee, or any one of the following: Don Miller, H. Stuhldreher, or Tom Reardon, by Thursday noon.

Carl Prell Talks to Junior Journalists

Mr. Carl Prell, representing the Lamport - MacDonald Advertising agency of South Bend, talked to the junior journalists in the library Tuesday afternoon on the subject of "Layout and Typography." It was through the influence of Prof. McAuliffe, of the advertising department of the University, that Mr. Prell was induced to tell of his experiences with those particular phases of advertising.

Mr. Prell emphasized his points by using as illustrations some of the advertisements which his concern had written.

SENIOR FESTIVITIES NOW UNDER WAY

SENIOR BALL AT PALAIS
ROYALE IS CLIMAX OF
WEEK AT N. D.

After four long years of waiting, the class of 1924 has reached the delightful climax of its college career, the Senior Ball.

Beginning with the Notre Dame-Minnesota baseball game yesterday afternoon, and the informal dance at the Oliver hotel last evening, at 9 o'clock, the Senior Ball will continue until the last strain of music at the dance to be held after the theater party Saturday night.

Ball week officially opened at the informal dance last night. Although all of the guests were not in South Bend, a fair crowd was present to commence the activities of the week.

Tonight there will be a formal dinner dance at the Oliver, for which the services of Charlie Davis and his orchestra have been secured. Mr. Davis has the reputation of possessing the finest dance orchestra in Indiana, and its appearance at this function will add greatly to its attractiveness. The committee in charge has made arrangements whereby the tables will be so placed that there will be plenty of room for dancing.

At 2:30 this afternoon, the informal reception will be held at the Elks' Temple. The Big Five orchestra from the university has been engaged for this occasion, and a light lunch will be served.

The climax of the Senior Ball week will come at 9:30 Friday evening, when the Senior Ball will begin. Dancing will continue from this time until 3:30 a. m. Don Bestor, with Benson's Terrace Gardens orchestra, will furnish the music. The most elaborate favors and unique programs will be a feature of the ball.

The patrons and patronesses for the Ball are: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. Knute K. Rockne, Professor and Mrs. Joseph Reichert and Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin.

The next event on the program will be the Indiana State Track Meet, which will be held on Cartier field Saturday afternoon. The following schools will take part in the meet: Notre Dame, Indiana, Purdue, De Pauw, Wabash, Butler and several others. A theater party at the Blackstone theater, and a dance to be held at the College Inn and the Oliver will close the Senior Ball Week for 1924. The Blackstone theater will put on a special program for the senior party.

The sale of tickets is much larger than was at first counted upon, and Chairman O'Boyle of the ticket committee announces that those seniors who have not yet procured their tickets must do so at once. No one will be allowed to attend any of the functions of Senior Ball week without a ticket, and the ticket must be completely paid for. Seniors are urged to have their tickets with them to save any embarrassment and unnecessary trips to school after them.

The South Bend Tribune has signified its intention of printing the pictures of the girls invited by the seniors for the Ball, and asked that all seniors who desire to have the pictures of their girl friends printed, to hand the pictures to Paul (Continued on page four.)

New College Dormitory and Class Room Building at St. Mary's Now Under Construction; Hope to Have It Completed in June

Rapid progress has been made on the new $900,000 college dormitory and classroom building which was begun on the St. Mary's campus the middle of last March. In the picture we see the beautiful building as Maurice Carroll, the architect of Kansas City, Missouri, and former Notre Dame man, visualized it some months ago when this drawing was made.

The new building is to be situated on the north campus, with a frontage of three hundred and ninety-two feet, extending from the tennis courts to the lake. The structure has been worked out in harmony with the present campus buildings of Bedford stone and buff-colored brick.

New College Dormitory.

The four-story dormitory will be in the shape of an open triangle with a third wing extending north from the central six-story tower. The main entrance will be approached by a flight of stone steps leading to a vestibule with recessed lights set in stone tracery. Thence grilled doors will open into the formal reception hall.

On the first floor of the north wing will be a handsome lounge eighty-eight feet in length, an adjoining serving room, and a sun porch. A decorative promenade will surround the entire wing. The east and west wings, which form the two sides of the open quadrangle, will extend one hundred and twenty-five feet beyond the tower, and will have entrances leading to the avenue and into the central court, which will be bordered by cloister walks. In the west wing will be the recreation room, post office, the president's suite and the other administrative offices. The east wing will be occupied by four student drawing-rooms, lounge, and formal reception rooms.

On the second floor above the recreation room, the study hall will extend the entire length of the west wing, and the north wing will be given to a library with adjacent reading and stack rooms. On the second, third, and fourth floors of the tower there will be small dining rooms and kitchenettes for private entertainments. The astronomical observatory will be on the fifth floor of the tower, and above it the roof garden. One hundred single and thirty-two double rooms with adjoining bath and study, and six private dormitories, each to accommodate six students, will occupy the entire space on third and fourth floors. Built-in desks, long mirrors, wardrobes, and lavatories will afford convenience.

The climax of the building's artistry will be realized in the chapel to occupy the third and fourth floors of the north wing. Especially beautiful will be the vaulted ceiling and Gothic windows.

Temporal needs will not be overlooked, however. In the north and west wings of the basement a candy shop, a beauty parlor, a laundry and pressing room will meet the student demands.

Two elevators, fireproof stairways, and soundless linoleum on the upper floor, corridors will contribute to the utility of the building; while its beauty will be enhanced by walls of oak paneling, French doors and windows of leaded glass varied in design, and marble floors in the main corridors and the chapel.

New Classroom Building.

The four-story classroom building, located west of the dormitory and connected with the west wing by a cloister walk, will have a dining hall on the first floor; lecture and class rooms and laboratories on the second and third floors; and private rooms on the fourth. There will also be a dining hall for guests and a service department.

The buildings are absolutely fireproof and will accommodate 500 students.

Today.
12:30 — Frosh elections, south room library.
2:30 — Informal reception at Elks' Temple.
7:00 — Dinner Dance at Oliver.
Tomorrow.
9:30 — Senior Ball at Palais Royale.

THE DAILY'S STAND FOR NOTRE DAME

A union building to be built as soon as possible.
 A well-organized student body, residing on the campus.
 True recognition of good scholarship and a better appreciation for the efforts of men in campus activities.

A POSSIBLE DISGUISE.

It is practically apparent that the American legislators are bent on excluding the Japanese from this country, in spite of President Coolidge's action signifying his desire for them to act in a contrary manner. The members of the House and Senate, who have so strongly supported the Japanese "exclusion measure" base their discriminating action not only on the argument that our social, our economic, and our industrial institutions will be severely injured by the influx of cheap labor, like some persons do, but upon an argument that is motivated by patriotism. Even such men like Senator Lodge, who previously had joined President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes in opposition to the proposal of exclusion, are in favor of it, and they do not hesitate to state that their change of attitude was brought about primarily because of Ambassador Hanihara's threatening note to our government, in which he undiplomatically spoke of "grave consequences" which would necessarily follow should the "exclusion policy" be adopted.

Editorial comment in a Chicago newspaper characterizes this action on the part of the American government as a new declaration of American independence, not less significant and epochmaking for America and the world than the declaration of 1776. It certainly has taken on the aspects of an international precedent similar to the declaration made in Independence Hall one hundred and forty-eight years ago and the Monroe Doctrine policy in 1823, and the responsive patriotic action of our statesmen is to be commended, in so far as their patriotism was challenged by the absence of an exclusion bill; but have these same statesmen let the emotional surge of their patriotism stifle their powers of reason? Have these gentlemen fully determined whether or not America, with her ever-increasing number of industries, and her gradual assumption of leadership in the industrial spheres, will need the assistance of these foreigners; have these men first made provisions to check the practices of immigrant smuggling which have grown so steadily that more persons are smuggled into this country than are permitted to enter in accordance with the immigration quota; and lastly, have these men fully analyzed the factions back of this exclusion movement to determine whether or not some group is the sponsor of it, in the hopes of some day excluding all foreigners, especially Catholic foreigners? Sinister influences are everywhere at work in this country trying to undermine the principles and structures that have made this nation so great and powerful. We, and our representatives, must examine them closely, because a disguise need not always be of a peculiar nature.

A FAIR CLAIM BUT POOR BUSINESS.

The story is told by a young woman that she recently purchased a pair of satin slippers in a department store for $6. She took the slippers home and tried them on but decided that she did not like them and took them back to the store, asking a return of her money. The manager gave her $5.70, saying that the 30 cent deduction was 5 per cent for service.

This is an unusual story because few business houses make a deduction when goods are returned. No doubt it did cost this store manager 30 cents, probably a whole lot more, for the service given in supplying this woman with slippers. First of all there was the clerk to wait on her; then there was the boy in the wrapping room, and the girl who makes change. And when she brought them back there was the lady at the exchange desk. All of them must be paid. Perhaps this store manager figures his cost so close that it must be a cash transaction in order that he may make a fair profit. His 30 cent deduction may have been a most necessary one, and yet he will lose money by this policy. The same storekeeper might have added a dime to the selling price of those slippers and thus distribute the burden of service charge for returns and exchanges, and he would probably never have offended a customer. On the other hand, he chose to assess the added cost on the person causing it. Just a little thing, and yet that incident undoubtedly cost him a customer; and a lost customer is a lost profit.

Which only illustrates that the little things are the important things in business.

New Offerings on Stage and Screen

ORPHEUM—"Three Weeks."

BLACKSTONE—"Dawn of Tomorrow."

OLIVER—"Sally", Saturday, May 24.

PALACE—"Phantom Justice."

Conrad Nagle and Aileen Pringle put a Glyn plot over in a very glynegue-manner. It answers all the specifications of a movie with an equatorial temperature. We can truthfully say that "Three Weeks" is, at least, sensational.

"Dawn of Tomorrow" with Jacqueline Logan and David Torrence begins a three days' rest at the Blackstone today. This is noteworthy is so much as it is the six millionth story of love and regeneration.

The vaudeville menu looks promising. By pulling straws we have decided that Ernest Evans and his University Orchestra will do the most good.

"Sally" with Leon Errol will pause for a brief rest at the Oliver Saturday. There will be one performance only, due to the advanced age of the production.

The Palace unrolls "Phantom Justice" with Rod La Roque, which will clearly demonstrate the devastating effects of a tender conscience. The headliner on the boards is "Little Billy" about whom you have been reading for the last six weeks under the heading of "Coming Attractions". We just can't wait for Kronos.—P. C. M.

ABSURDITIES TO BE REPEATED

During graduation week, the Monogram club will again present the famous "Absurdities of 1924" which made such a big hit several months ago. All monogram men are asked to be present next Tuesday evening in Washington hall for the first rehearsal.

Business Leadership

LEARN the fundamental principles of business and their application to daily business problems. To help you minimize the time, usually spent in gaining experience, the intensive, one-year training course of the Babson Institute is offered.

From actual experience the fundamental principles of business are made clear. By positive examples, the student is shown how to apply these principles in the conduct of every day commercial affairs.

Santa Maria Will Appear Saturday

The Santa Maria will be distributed on the campus Saturday afternoon to all the Knights of Columbus of the Notre Dame Council. Along with this council magazine the national magazine, the Prospectus, a copy of the rules of the order, and a Notre Dame council directory will also be presented to the members.

Heretofore the Santa Maria was issued quarterly, but because the council felt that The Daily was carrying sufficiently for the detailed accounts of the happenings of each meeting, the Santa Maria was made an annual, chronicling the events of the year.

Juggler's Last Issue Promised Next Week

The Juggler will make its final appearance of the present scholastic year with the Commencement number which will be ready for distribution the latter part of next week. Dan Hickey, editor in chief of the publication, is determined to get the Juggler out before Decoration Day.

The material handed in to date has been exceptionally good and gives promise to another splendid number. Many of the contributions have come from the pens and typewriters of former well-known students of the University. It is rumored that the Commencement number will in all probability be as large as the recent Girls' number.

N. D. Orchestra Plays at Ft. Wayne

The University orchestra made a trip to Fort Wayne Tuesday evening to play for the fourth annual commencement exercises of the St. Joseph's hospital school for nurses. Dr. Lewis J. Brown, the director, accompanied the orchestra which was composed of 21 members.

Dr. H. E. Bruggemann, chairman, formally presented Dr. Browne to the audience as a musician of international fame and a member of the Royal Philharmonic in Rome. Dr. Brown and his men were well received.

MONOGRAM INITIATION SOON

The annual Monogram club initiation will be held on June 1, according to a statement issued to The Daily yesterday by Harvey Brown, president of the club. About twenty-five men will be welcomed into the monogram ranks, but just where the initiation is to take place no one but the candidates and the club men will know.

At Other Colleges

OHIO UNIVERSITY—There are 618 universities and colleges in the United States and of this number the state of Ohio has fifty while Texas, the largest state in the union has only twenty.

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY—A recent investigation conducted by officials revealed that the alumni of the school are distributed from the Congo region in Africa to the most northern parts of Alaska.

MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY—"Fathers' Day" was celebrated by the students of the university in a very becoming manner. The fathers arrived in the city on Friday and attended classes with their sons, and were shown about the campus. On Saturday a banquet was given in the Union building and approximately 650 fathers were present. Professor William Henderson, one of the speakers, took as his topic "Chips and Blocks" while President Leroy Burton of the university was also a speaker. Many of the fathers who were present were once college students and memories of their college days were recalled once more.

MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY—The Varsity Glee club during the past season traveled 2,819 miles and sang before 27,140 people. In the Intercollegiate Glee club contests at Chicago the varsity singers lost first place by four points.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY—The feature events of the Soph Triumph last Friday night were boxing bouts between freshmen and sophomores. No second year men were admitted to the triumph unless they were clad in loud colored pajamas.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY—"Spirit Week" was observed last week by the students to revive and strictly enforce the customs of the college. This method was found urgent due to the growing laxity of class and general customs at Penn State.

Iowa Gets Revenge on Notre Dame; 3-2

By the margin of one point, the University of Iowa baseball nine took revenge on Notre Dame for the bitter defeat last season and the Irish suffered their first conference loss to Coach Sam Barry's team 3 to 2 on Cartier field Tuesday. The tilt almost duplicated the game of last season as a pitchers' battle. Gus Stange on the mound for the Irish twirled excellent ball for the Blue and Gold while Fabricious hurling for Iowa retained his effectiveness throughout the game.

Hard hitting was lacking but hits were not infrequent, Iowa gathering eight bingles for their credit while Notre Dame found the visiting moundsman for seven. Notre Dame started out with a rush scoring two runs the first inning while Iowa rode through four innings without getting much of a chance to score. The Notre Dame fielders were crowding their pitcher with support and the odds were leaning toward the Blue and Gold for another conference victory.

Sheehan and Nolan brought in the first two counters being assisted around the path by timely hits. For the next three innings the pitchers decided the game and both men used a change of pace to good advantage. Scanlon opened the fifth for Iowa with a single that started the rampage good for one score. Barrett singled helping Scanlon to third and Fabricious went to third when he was hit with a pitched ball. King's bunt caught Scanlon on the homeward path, but Silver's wild peg to third allowed Scanlon to get home.

Notre Dame had a good chance to score in the sixth if one of the Blue and Gold batsmen could have hit when a hit meant a run. A walk and a hit had put Nolan and Dunne on the path. Silver came to bat but fled to Scanlon and Pearson hit an infield roller to Fabricious who elected to get Nolan coming home. With Dunne on third, Prendergrast grounded out.

Iowa counted again in the sixth when Hicks connected with the only long hit of the day, a hard drive into center giving him a pass to (Continued on page 4)

N. D. GOLFERS PREPARE FOR MATCH WITH CULVER CADETS

The victory of the Notre Dame golf team over the DePaul university quartet of Chicago last Friday, assumed even greater proportions when it was learned her Sunday that DePaul had captured team honors in the Western Interstate golf tournament held at Dubuque, last Saturday afternoon. The tournament was staged in connection with the Columbia college athletic carnival.

The performances of the Notre Dame team in the last three matches brightens the golf prospects for the local colors in the coming matches with Culver and Indiana. The cadets will be played at the military academy's course on May 24, while Indiana will come to the Chain o' Lakes course on May 29. The officers of the local club are making arrangements for the appearance of the DePaul team here on June 6.

M'GOWAN KNOCKED OUT

BOSTON, May 21.—Danny McGowan, Notre Dame flyweight, was knocked out in the semi-finals of the Olympic tryouts by Pete Sarron of Birmingham, Ala. McGowan won his way into the Olympic tryouts this spring by winning the finals of the flyweight division in the Indiana-Kentucky sectional Olympic trials.

ON THE LEVEL

By LARRY KELLY

From now until the week-end of May 30 and 31, the prominent track dopsters of the country will have a great feast on speculations. Already they have begun to manifest their foresight by intimating that the national track championship will be a toss-up between California and Stanford when these two schools meet the pick of the eastern universities in the Harvard stadium on Memorial Day.

Among the three big eastern schools, Yale stands best chance of pushing the competition for the California Bears. Yale has a sprinter in Norton with Champan and Gage in the quarter mile. Commins is jumping close to 24 feet. (Continued on page four.)

third. Scantlebury walked and Barrett fied out. With Hicks on third, Laude laid one down to Nolan who touched the Iowan on the path but could not get Hicks who had raced into home.

In the seventh, Sheehan walked and stole second and third but two strike outs and a fly killed his attempt to break the tie. In the eighth, Flynn hit a long one to right field but was caught on the key-stone corner by Prendergrast, trying to stretch it into a three bager. Hicks scored on Scantlebury's single, for the deciding counter of the game. Two pinch hitters inserted by Coach Keogan in the ninth fied out.

and Mal Douglas is running the mile around 4:30. Princeton has a great hurdler in Scattergood but the Tiger weight star, Hills, is not conceded much of a show in the shot against Hartranft of Stanford. Pennsylvania is not counted in any further than a place in an event here and there. Cornell has one star, Kirby. The Ithaca flash won the intercollegiate mile last year in 4:17.

BADGERS ENGAGE

manifested plenty of strength at competing with some of the top notch conference teams. Both Iowa and Wisconsin will be hard games, and Notre Dame will have to present an offensive power equal to the Hawks and the Badgers if the plate last Tuesday and its power will not be diminished in the least when the Hawks play on their own grounds. Wisconsin displayed unusual strength in defeating Illinois but succumbed to the attack of the Boilermakers.

Coach Sam Barry will probably draft Duhm, the Iowa ace, for mound duty against Notre Dame. When Michigan beat Iowa, last Monday afternoon, 3 to 2, Duhm staged a pitcher's duel with Benson of the Wolverines. The Hawkeye hurler held the situation well in hand throughout the game except for the sixth, when timely hits and an error allowed Michigan to shove three runs across the plate. The encounter with the Badgers will find the Irish just returning from Iowa with little time for rest and no time for practice.

The committee in charge of the reservations for the dinner dance to be held at the dinner dance Thursday evening is composed of: Leo Cavanaugh, Robert Reagan, Joseph Sheehan, William Gallagan, Ed Wollesak and Al Birmingham.

Harry Denny's Collegians will play for the informal dance at the Oliver Wednesday night.

THE CONSTITUTION of the Student Activities Council of the University of Notre Dame

ARTICLE ONE

Name

This organization shall be known as the Student Activities Council of the University of Notre Dame.

ARTICLE TWO

Objects

The objects of the Students Activities Council shall be:

1. To provide an effective channel of communication between the undergraduate body and the University authorities.

2. To exercise a general supervision over student activities, organizations, traditions and customs.

3. To crystalize and make effective the sanest of undergraduate opinions.

ARTICLE THREE

Powers

SECTION 1. (Enumeration). The powers of the Student Activities Council shall be legislative, executive and judicial. These powers shall be exercised during the academic year, exclusive of the summer session.

SECTION 2. (Legislative). The Student Activities Council may as it sees fit make rules and regulations, affecting organizations, celebrations, student customs, ceremonies, entertainments, general elections and all other matters directly pertaining to student activity.

The Student Activities Council may make rules and regulations concerning the general behavior of the student body except insofar as regulations now or hereafter be provided by University authorities.

SECTION 3. (Executive). The Student Activities Council shall, with the co-operation of the undergraduate body, make provisions for the administration of its rules and regulations.

The Student Activities Council may exercise jurisdiction over games and contests not under the control of the Athletic Board.

The Student Activities Council shall have power to authorize soliciting, canvassing and collecting on the University campus. Enforcement of this power shall reside with the Council.

SECTION 3. (Judicial). Upon written request of the president of the University, or of the dean of any department, or of any faculty member acting through the dean of his department, the Student Activities Council may make an investigation into any matter of concern to student life. Report on such investigation shall be in writing with or without recommendation as the request shall have stated. This clause shall not be interpreted to mean that the granting of a request for an investigation, as provided by this clause, shall be mandatory.

Upon written request of any student or any group of students, the Student Activities Council may submit for the consideration of the University authorities such recommendations as the Council shall deem warranted.

In arriving at a decision in any case arising under Section 4, Article III, the Student Activities Council may delegate its judicial power to a committee of six students. When the Council shall decide to delegate its power in this manner, it shall be the privilege of the president of the Council to request each class president to submit in writing the names of two men from his class who shall constitute a panel from which the Council shall select by vote six men. These six men shall sit as a jury to hear the facts in the case and decide the issue which is at stake. But no person interested in the case individually or interested in the issue at stake shall be eligible to serve as juror. Unless otherwise provided, report from such a jury shall be submitted to the Council in writing.

PREAMBLE

No student council can function effectively unless it truly represents the student body. Nor can it properly perform its work unless it enjoys at all times the confidence of the students. No student council can justify existence by a single act; nor is a single failure an indication of incompetence. In order that student government may succeed two things are essential: first, a realization on the part of the students that there is a field in which such a council can for the good of the University act effectively; secondly, a willingness on the part of the University authorities to grant as much freedom of action to the council as is consistent with order and discipline. Confidence on the part of the faculty and co-operation from the students will make of a student council what it is intended to be and what it should be—a powerful good in all departments of student life.

ARTICLE FOUR

Membership

SECTION 1. (Number of Members). The Student Activities Council shall consist of nineteen members.

SECTION 2. (Representation). Representation shall be apportioned among the senior, junior, sophomore and freshman classes as follows: seniors, ten; juniors, five; sophomores, three; freshmen, one.

The representatives from the various classes shall be provided as follows:

First, senior class: the class president; the man who shall have served the same class as junior president the preceding year; two men elected the preceding year as juniors to serve a term of two years; one man each from the five colleges, namely, Engineering, Science, Arts and Letters, Law, and Commerce; one man elected from the off-campus group, who shall be elected as such and who shall also be a senior.

Second, junior class: the class president; the man who shall have served the same class as sophomore president the preceding year; two men elected at large to serve for two years, namely, their junior and senior years; one man elected at large to serve for one year, namely, his junior year.

Third, sophomore class: the class president; the man who shall have served the same class as freshman president the preceding year; one man elected at large to serve one year.

Fourth, freshman class: the class president.

SECTION 3. (Qualifications). Any duly enrolled student who is in good scholastic standing at the time of his nomination, shall be eligible to represent the class of which he is a member on the Student Activities Council. The decision of the faculty committee, hereinafter provided, shall be accepted as final in determining whether or not the candidate is in good scholastic standing.

SECTION 4. (Vacancies). When, by forfeiture or resignation, a member vacates his position on the Council, such vacancy shall be filled by the class which the vacating member represented. A member shall forfeit his place on the Council if at any time he ceases to be a member of the class which he represents. But it shall be provided that in case a class president shall forfeit his membership on the Council his place shall be filled by the vice-president.

SECTION 5. (Faculty Committee). A faculty committee consisting of four members shall exist coordinately with the Student Activities Council. The faculty committee shall be composed of four members, two of whom shall be appointed by the President of the University. The prefect of discipline and the athletic director shall by virtue of their positions be ex-officio members of the committee. It shall be the privilege of the Council to nominate two men for the places on the committee which are to be filled by the President of the University.

The faculty committee shall meet with the Student Activities Council at least quarterly and at such other times as the chairman of the Student Activities Council shall see fit. The faculty committee shall act in an advisory capacity and shall at no time interfere with legislation of the Student Activities Council unless such legislation shall be contrary to traditional Notre Dame policy or to the expressed policy of the administrative officials of the University.

It shall be the privilege of the faculty committee to make from time to time such recommendations as it shall see fit. It shall be the obligation of the Student Activities Council to consider these recommendations at the first meeting after such recommendations have been received.

ARTICLE FIVE

Elections

SECTION 1. (Times). Nominees for the offices of members of the Student Activities Council shall be chosen at primary elections to be held within one week after the regular class elections in May. The members shall be selected from the duly elected nominees at subsequent elections which shall be held in accordance with elections regulations provided by the Council.

SECTION 2. (Notices of Elections). At least three days' notice shall be given of all primary and regular Student Activities Council elections.

SECTION 3. (Conduct of Elections). Meetings for the nomination and the election of members of the Council shall be open class meetings in charge of the presidents. Voting shall be by secret ballot.

SECTION 4. (Certification of Elections). It shall be the duty of the president and the secretary of each class to make by written statement, signed by them, an announcement of the result of the elections. It shall be their duty to transmit this statement to the president of the retiring Council. Such statement when transmitted shall constitute certification of election.

ARTICLE SIX

Officers

SECTION 1. (Name of Officers). The officers of the Student Activities Council shall be a President, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

SECTION 2. (Manner of Election). At a meeting to be called by the president of the retiring Council within ten days after the vacancies for the future scholastic year have been duly filled, the members shall elect from their own number the officers specified in Section 1 of this article.

SECTION 3. (Qualifications). It shall be necessary for the president to be a senior; the secretary shall be either a junior or a senior.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Discipline

SECTION 1. (Rules of Order). The parliamentary rules contained in Roberts' "Rules of Order" shall govern the Student Activities Council insofar as they are applicable and not inconsistent with this constitution or the rules and regulations adopted thereunder.

SECTION 2. (Attendance). A member who, without having been properly excused by the president, shall have been absent from three regular meetings during any one semester shall thereby have vacated his place on the Council.

A record of the absences shall be kept by the secretary who shall report to the Council immediately the third absence of any member during one semester. The president shall then declare the seat of the member vacant and call an election in accordance with Section 4 of Article IV. But no member who has forfeited his place on the committee under the provisions of this section shall be eligible to succeed himself.

SECTION 3. (Fines). Any member of the Council who is absent from any meeting without valid excuse, such excuse to be adjudged by the president, shall be fined fifty cents for such absence. He shall not be permitted to vote at any meeting until such fine, or fines, have been paid. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to report at the opening of each meeting whether an offending member has paid his fine. And if the treasurer is an offending member it shall be the duty of the secretary to report whether his fine has been paid. The Council shall have power to compel the attendance of absent members so that a quorum may be obtained.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Meetings

SECTION 1. (Quorum). A majority of the members of the Student Activities Council shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. (Time and Place). Meetings shall be held at least twice a month at a specified place. It shall be the privilege of the president to call meetings at any time he shall see fit. But the secretary shall notify all members when a meeting is to be held.

SECTION 3. (Official Statements). The president shall have power to issue statements regarding business of the Council.

SECTION 4. (Admittance to Meetings). The meetings of the Student Activities Council shall not be open to the student body unless the Council shall by a majority vote so decide.

SECTION 5. (Journal). The secretary shall keep a correct journal of the proceedings of all meetings. On the request of any three members he shall enter in the journal a record of the yeas and nays on any question. The journal shall be open to students or to faculty members at times within the discretion of the president.

ARTICLE NINE

Finances

SECTION 1. (Accounts.) The treasurer shall keep correct accounts of the funds of the Council in books to be provided for that purpose. Such accounts shall be open at all times to members of the Council. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to make from such accounts a semi-annual report to be due before February 1st and June 1st of each year.

SECTION 2. (Disbursements). Bills submitted to the Council shall be subject to the approval of the quorum and the written "O. K." of the president.

SECTION 3. (Compensation). No officer or member of the Student Activities Council shall receive any reward or emolument of any kind for his services.

SECTION 4. (Raising of Funds). The Student Activities Council shall have the power to raise funds for purposes of student welfare by such methods as it shall see fit.

ARTICLE TEN

Committees of the Council

SECTION 1. (Enumeration). Standing committees and such other committees as he shall see fit to name may be appointed by the president for specific objects. But they shall be governed in all expenditures by the provisions of Section 2, Article IX.

Section 2. (Membership). Any member of the Council shall be eligible to membership on any standing or temporary committee, except the standing dance committee, which shall consist of the president of the senior class, the president of the junior class and one senior representative.

SECTION 3. (Chairmen). The chairmen of all standing committees shall be seniors.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

Amendments

SECTION 1. (Manner of Enactment). An amendment to this constitution may be considered at any regular meeting or at any meeting specially called for that purpose. But the amendment shall have been submitted in writing at the last previous meeting.

SECTION 2. (Passage). An amendment, to be enacted, shall receive the vote of two-thirds of the members of the Council.

SECTION 3. (Operation). An amendment shall become effective when it has been passed by the Council and approved by the proper University authorities.

ARTICLE TWELVE

Ratification

SECTION 1. (Manner of Ratification). This constitution shall become immediately effective when it has been approved by the proper University authorities and by a majority of the students voting at an all-campus election.

AMENDMENTS

Keep this copy of the S. A. C. constitution and insert future amendments here.
