

This trophy is named after Gerry Paquette who coached the Notre Dame Hockey Club from 1965 to 1968 and helped hockey become a varsity sport.

It is given to perpetuate Notre Dame's well established rivalry with the Air Force Academy. In their final game as a club, and against the Air Force Academy, this puck scored the last goal at 19:59 of the third period.
