Pamphlet Rack

The pamphlet "Frequent and Daily Communion" answers the following objections:

1. I am not worthy to go so often.
2. I am not holy enough.
3. I am afraid of losing my respect.
4. Frequency diminishes the effect of Holy Communion.
5. I cannot be going to confession every day.
6. I have no time for proper preparation and thanksgiving.
7. It is a great jump from monthly to daily Communion.
8. I shall not be able to keep it up.
9. I don't feel myself one bit better for my frequent Communion.

-----
"Wants"

If the pamphlet you want is not on the rack, write your "want" on a slip of paper and drop it in the contribution box.

-----
"What Shall I Read?"

If you want to warp your judgment of spiritual values, read the "six best smellers."

If you want to develop the Catholic sense, visit the Apostolate of Religious Reading, in Brownson Hall, and follow the course of reading suggested by Professor Shuster in his list of Catholic books.

An Observation

These bulletins are always signed. Criticisms of them should also be signed.
