

Religious Bulletin.
March 23, 1922.

Easter Duty.

Communion Masses: 6:20 in the church (not the basement chapel).
Confessions: 12:30, 4:15 and 6:15 to 7:00 p.m. in the basement chapel. 7:30 in the hall chapels and in the church. Confessions will not be heard in the Church on Saturday morning. Kindly show as much courtesy as you receive in this matter, and try not to crowd the confessionals on Saturday morning.

-----

Suppose You Sleep Over Saturday Morning.

Try to be on hand promptly at 6:20 for the beginning of the Mass. If you fail to do this remember you can receive Holy Communion in the church until 8:00 and in the Walsh Hall chapel from 8:00 until 12:00.

-----

Why Have a Special Day for Easter Duty?

You don't have one at home; quite so. But the request to set one day aside for a solemn act of faith and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament came from several students and it is adopted as a very good suggestion. The influence of example is too well known a matter for comment.

"So let your light shine before men that they might see your good works and glorify your Father who is in Heaven". St. Matthew. Chapt. 5. V16.

-----

Why the 25th of March?

The feast of the Annunciation commemorates the mystery of the Incarnation or the action of the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity in assuming the Flesh and Blood which He gives ~~us~~ to us in Holy Communion. In the ages of faith this day was new year's day, and was one of the great feasts of the year.

-----

Books on the Index.

A little English commentary, "The Roman Index of Forbidden Books," is for sale in the pamphlet rack. The price is 75¢

-----

How to Make a Good Confession.

More copies of this important pamphlet have been secured. They will be found in the pamphlet rack.

-----

The Sick.

Two students ask prayers for relatives who are very sick.

-----

Obituary.

A student asks prayers for the repose of the souls of two of his relatives who died within the last two weeks.

Prayers are also requested for the repose of the souls of two priests of the Port Wayne diocese. Fr. Hennenberger and Fr. Miller. Fr. Hennenberger's brother was a student at Notre Dame. He was drowned in St. Joseph lake on May 30, 1912.