Obituary.

Father Doremus has just received word of the death of his mother. In your charity remember her soul in your Communion Saturday morning. Past and present members of the French classes are urged to open a Novena of Communions for this intention.

The Saturday Mass.

The Mass on Saturday morning, which all students are expected to attend, is an act of thanksgiving to the Blessed Virgin for her favors to Notre Dame. "Notre Dame" means "Our Lady." You wear her badge: hear mass and offer Holy Communion every Saturday in her honor.

An Odd Practice.

A former student, now actively engaged in persecution of the Church, used to hear Mass at Notre Dame by entering for the last Gospel of the first Mass and leaving it at the Confetior of the SEcond. A few students followed his example last Saturday.

Scandal.

Reading and talking about indecent topics of the day lowers ideals, wounds modesty, and at times, does permanent injury to the soul. It helps no one.

Alumni Notes.

An old student writes: "God always seemed to spend more time at Notre Dame than anywhere else; --at least it was easier to find him there." Make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament in the basement chapel or in Sorin or Walsh.
