Let Us Give Thanks.

The best way to thank God for his gifts is by a devout Holy Communion. In Holy Communion you receive the Son of God. Offer him to the Heavenly Father in return for all that He has done for you.

For Your Convenience.

On Thursday and Friday you will have the following opportunities for confession and Holy Communion:

6:00 -- 8:00 a.m. -- Basement chapel: Masses, Confessions and Holy Communions.

8:00 -- 9:00 a.m. -- Walsh Hall: Confessions and Communion.

9:00 -- 10:00 a.m. -- Sacred Heart Church: Mass, Confessions and Communion.

10:00 -- 12:00 a.m. -- Walsh Hall: Confessions and Communion.

As usual, confessions will be heard in the basement chapel from 6:15 till 7:00 on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Cake-Eaters.

The bars are let down for thursday. He-men may eat cake with impunity -- but not necessarily without indigestion.

-----

Don't celebrate Thanksgiving in the Morgue.

Three years ago, sixty -four inhabitants of the connecticut valley spoiled Christmas for their families by dying of wood-alcohol poisoning. Be considerate.

"Weep for the Fool."

In the days of Solomen, they used to weep for fools: now the world seeks wisdom from them. Times have changed: what was scandalous a generation ago is all right now. This is the philosophy of the fool. The church has not changed; the law of God has not changed. When in doubt, go back to first principles. And in the meantime, read the plaint of Ecclesiasticus (chapter 22, verses 10-14):

"Weep for the dead, for his light has failed: and weep for the fool, for his understanding faileth.

"Weep but a little for the dead, for he is at rest.

"For the wicked life of a wicked fool is worse than death.

"The mourning for the dead is seven days: but for a fool and an ungodly man all the days of their life.

"Talk not much with a fool: and go not with him that hath no sense."
