Certain Freshmen.

A Senior complained the other day that he was distracted through Mass by the Freshman who sat near him. Dear boys: If your mothers didn't spank you when you were a little younger, don't advertise the fact to the whole world. The grace of God took you away from your mothers and brought you to Notre Dame. Find out what's going on here.

Tom Byrne.

Word from Tom Byrne's parents assures us that your prayers have had their effect. In spite of everything he is getting better.

Badin Hall.

If your need is desperate, get Badin Hall to pray for what you want. When God hears a strange voice he answers at once.

Your Religion : A Sophomore Quiz On Details.

1. Is a college man who persists in standing at the rear of the church during Mass on Sunday when there are seats vacant, guilty of scandal or irreverence?

Twent-seven out of thirty six answered correctly.

2. If a person arrives at 7:45 for the 7:30 Mass and finds the door locked, has he any grievance against the pastor?

Ten out of eighteen answered correctly. Some questioned the pastor's right.

3. At what part of a Low Mass should the congregation stand?

Out of eighteen there were no correct answers.

4. At what part of the High Mass should the congregation stand?

Out of eighteen there were no correct answers.

5. Write the shortest possible act of faith.

Five out of eighteen attempted it.

6. What is the correct way to make the sign of the cross?

This question provoked originality -- lots of private interpretation. Eight out of eighteen were partly correct.

7. What is the indulgenced prayer recommended to be said at the consecration and at what particular part of the Consecration?

Five out of eighteen had the correct prayer, but not the time.

Don't Abolish the Sacrament of Penance.

There are very few confessions since Lent started. You don't have to commit sins in order to go to confession. Go for the graces of the Sacrament, and receive absolution for the sins of your past life. Daily communicants would do well to go every week or two.
