Novena before Exams.

Starting Tuesday you have just nine days for a Novena to end on Wednesday, the first day of examinations.

Laziness.

Get up as late as you like -- but come to the Walsh Hall chapel. If there is no priest in the chapel call at room 207.

Does the Novena Pay?

On the present survey, 225 students state that they made the Novena before the last exams. The following table classifies these students according to years and class averages.

Class Average	Freshman	Sophomore	Junior	Senior	Total
90--100	26	6	5	2	39
80--90	74	40	20	17	151
70--80	18	9	1	4	32
Below 70	1				1
1 Failure	1			1	2
	120	55	26	24	225

The tabulation for those who did not take the novena will be taken up later.

More Statistics.

Students who want figures on comparative attendance at Holy Communion will find the following table of interest:

	Basement	Sorin	Corby	Walsh	Badin	Freshman
1922	16,021	1110	616	1124	2357
1923	15,952	574	60	2469	1114	2199
	-69	-536	-556	1845	-1243	2199

The number of Communions in the Walsh Hall chapel after 8:15 this year was 998; last year it was 342 -- a net gain of 656. This gives Walsh Hall chapel a net gain of 689 -- the only gain shown for any hall chapel. Study the basement figures and don't all claim that your hall crowds the basement every morning.

Freshman Hall has nothing to brag about. Last year Badin, the Freshman hall, with 135 Catholic students, had 168 more Communions than Freshman hall this year with 170 Catholic students.

First Friday Coming.

There will be the usual Exposition of the Blessed Sacraments all day Friday. Spend a half hour with God in the Sanctuary and tell Him what you need.
