

Religious Bulletin.

May 9, 1923.

The Sophomore Hall.

The atmosphere has cleared considerably in the last few days and tomorrow the University Council will take up the matter. Pray harder than ever tomorrow. Things look good for the hall -- but you never can tell!

May Devotions Tonight.

Father Donahue will preach tonight at 7:30 on "The Heavenly Mother Machree." Confessions after Benediction. See next item.

Tomorrow.

The feast of the Ascension is one of the great feasts of the Church. It is a holyday of obligation. Those who receive Holy Communion only on the great feasts are due tomorrow.

The Novena for Pentecost.

The intentions are summarized from yesterday's Bulletin. Add your own.

- | | |
|-------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. Catholic Education. | 6. The Drive. |
| 2. Spread of the Faith. | 7. The Sick. |
| 3. Happy Marriage. | 8. The Mission Crusade. |
| 4. Religious Vocations. | 9. Our Folks. |
| 5. Careless Catholics. | 10. Our Country (A Sober country). |

Why We Urge Prayers to the Holy Ghost.

1. The Holy Ghost is the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity.
2. The Holy Ghost is the guiding spirit of the Church.
3. As Educated men we look to the Holy Ghost for his gifts of Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding.
4. Pope Leo XIII said that the twentieth century would be the century of the Blessed Sacrament and of the Holy Ghost. We want to lead in devotion to the Holy Ghost as we have in devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

On Caps.

"Cappy Ricks" queries: "One hangs his cap on the rack in the cafeteria, and finds it gone when he is leaving. Perhaps another remains near where his was hung. Is he justified in taking that one?"

2200 years ago Ecclesiasticus made this observation: "Lend not to a man that is mightier than thyself; and if thou lendest, count it as lost."

-Ecclus.8:15

If you want the cap you are justified in taking it if you are morally certain that it belongs to the absent-minded individual whose head is the same size as yours. You can find out by making a racket. If the owner is some other individual he will let you know about it.

Why not wear a coat and stick your cap in your pocket? Caps accumulate in goodly number each year in such places as the basement chapel, classroom, the barber shop, etc. Three remained over at the end of the season in Room 207 Walsh last year.

Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.