Today is a Fast Day.

What Your Friends Want to Know.

The following questions have been suggested for the next Religious Survey:

Is religion overdone at Notre Dame?

What is your attitude towards plagiarism?

Has Notre Dame helped you religiously?

Do you want personal consultation on your difficulties ?

What means would you suggest for overcoming profanity on the Campus?

Why do you not go to Mass oftener?

Why don't you read more Catholic books?

Will you try Holy Communion for two weeks?

Have you improved morally since coming to Notre Dame?

Would you marry a girl everybody has been kissing?

What is your definition of honor?

What objections have you to Catholic societies?

Have you ever thought of being a priest?

Have you any brothers or sisters? Are they in Catholic schools?

Are your friends here more sincere in their religion than those at home?

Why don't you receive Holy Communion more frequently during vacations?

Which in your estimation, has more religious influence in your life, your home or your school?

Do you feel that you have the proper respect for the members of the community?

About how many times have you received Holy Communion since entering Notre Dame?

What do you expect to do with your last twenty-five years?

What makes Notre Dame men courageous?

Prayers are requested for the repose of the soul of the father of Tom Hartnett, who was a student here last year and this.
