

How to Choose a Husband.

The latest contribution to the literature on this interesting subject comes from the Rev. Mr. Earl, a Methodist minister in Baltimore, who taboos the following types:

1. Worldly. (Temptations will get him some day and will wreck your matrimonial life sooner or later, Shun him.)
2. Shiftless. (No wife can supply a man with backbone. He must be a live wire and your bread winner.)
3. A cigarette fiend.
4. A Scoffer of religion.
5. A dancer. (The fol-de-rol dancer educated his heels rather than his head. Avoid him.)
6. A boozier. (His habits will lead you to the almshouse.)
7. Maker of excuses. (Catch him in a lie and say goodnight and goodby before you marry him.)
8. A spendthrift and gambler. (You'll get the crust and he the bread.)

When is a Man a Drunkard?

A man is a drunkard as soon as he learns by experience that drink is dangerous for him, and does not avoid it.

What the Judges Say.

Commenting on the fact that during the first quarter of this year, Chicago courts granted one divorce for every five marriages, judges who granted the divorces summarized the causes as follows:

Too much jazz; too much cabaretting and liquor toting.

Ultra sophistication of the rising generation.

Tendency of young married couples to live with their parents, thus becoming susceptible to their influence.

Failure of contracting parties to regard properly the solemn bonds of matrimony.

Too little religion in the home.

Poor cooking resulting from woman's desire to leave the "home fires" for a business career and makeshift delicatessen dinners.

What the Bible Says.

"He that loveth good cheer shall be in want; he that loveth wine and fat things shall not be rich." -- Proverbs, 21:17
