

Religious Bulletin.
Sept. 26, 1923.

Sky-Writing.

You can write your name in the sky with your feet. The feat that wear holes in the floor of the basement chapel are registering in heaven.

The Epic of the Basement Chapel.

If you want a real sentimental thrill out of the devotion of Notre Dame students, look at the floor under the last bench to the left as you enter the basement chapel.

Your Confessors.

It is not only proper for penitents to have favorite confessors: it is part of God's plan in choosing men instead of angels for ministers of the Sacrament of Penance.

Each particular priest preserves his natural disposition , and for your own particular direction the natural gifts of one priest may be more suitable than those of another.

The following confessors have permanent appointments:

Basement chapel -- 6:15-7:00 p.m. Fathers Steimer and O'Hara;
mornings: Fathers DeWulf, Steimer, Irvin and O'Hara.

Sorin Hall -- Father Kelly.
Walsh Hall -- Father Albertson.
Badin Hall -- Father Lahey.
Sophomore Hall -- Father Healey.
Freshman Hall -- Father O'Hara.
Main Building -- Father Miltner.

A Catechism of Matrimony.

The Bulletin refuses to run a heart-throbs column in competition with Col. Hearst, but it will discuss the Sacrament of Matrimony for the benefit of the masses. Puppy-love cases will not be considered: they take up too much space, and since the victims are temporarily insane you cannot reason with them.

Write out your questions and mail them or leave them in the contribution box at the pamphlet rack.

The Missions.

The Novena for the success of the Mission s starts Saturday. If your ppayers save a soul you have gon a long way toward saving your own.

Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.
