

Religious Bulletin.
October 6, 1923.

Mistaken Identification.

It is proposed for next year to make the "Hello" cards of aluminum. There should also be a set made of bone for the Freshmen who use them as letters of introduction to the young ladies of the Hill Street car line.

A Plaster Cast for Your Character.

The hick who can't withstand a drunken invitation to drink, needs a plaster cast for his character.

The Old and The New.

The ancient boarding school regime consisted in the removal of temptation. It presumed weak character. Notre Dame's system supposes strong character: weak characters are urgently requested to become strong or to move to the next stop. Daily Communion gives strength of Character.

The Futility of Brains.
Chapter II.

South Bend is a county-seat and it has a strong attraction for the dirt farmers on Saturday night. If you intend to pickle your stomach tonight, please don't insult your brains by taking them along with you. Take them over to Science Hall and park them in alcohol. Science might get some favorable reactions.

The Rosary Indulgences.

For every visit to the church from noon Saturday till Sunday evening, you can gain a plenary indulgence applicable to the poor souls in Purgatory. A condition is Holy Communion today or tomorrow.

The Missions.

Campus -- 7:30 Sunday evening -- Sacred Heart Church.
Off-Campus -- 8:00 Sunday evening -- St. Joseph's Church.

Your Reputation.

Father Cox, pastor of Old St. Patrick's Church, Pittsburgh, has written to invite the students and members of the football team to receive Holy Communion at his church Saturday morning before the Tech game.

Prayers.

John McMullen's father, who died yesterday.
Father McPartland, pastor of a student, who died recently.
Mrs. Edward Markey, wife of an old student, who died recently.

Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.
