

Religious Bulletin.
November 27, 1933

Don't Wreck the Train.

Receive the Sacraments before you start for home. If God wants you now He wants you in the state of grace. It is only a few years since a fine boy from Notre Dame and his cousin from St. Mary's were killed on their way home from the Christmas holidays. There was a priest on the train with the Blessed Sacrament. He was killed, but we may safely assume that he had time to give general absolution and Benediction before he died.

Late Sleep.

On Thursday and Friday mornings there will be Masses in the Basement Chapel and Hall chapels at 8:30. Holy Communion will be distributed in the Walsh Hall chapel all morning -- and later if desired.

"The Girls Need It."

"A copy of the Religious Bulletin on 'A country is no Better Than its Women' was sent by 'Water-worn' to his sister at a girl's boarding school. The letter was opened and the reverend mail-examiner made on the Bulletin the following notation: 'Don't throw away the circular. It may not sound if addressed to the elite, but it's solid stuff and needed even by our own girls.'"

--"Water-worn."

Copies of ~~this~~ Bulletin may be obtained at the News Stand.

Concerning the Walsh Hall Chapel.

The Walsh Hall chapel gets a lot of unwarranted abuse. It doesn't seem fair to the early-risers that their bretheren should receive so much accomodations. Those who wonder should keep the following points in mind:

1. While part of the grace of Holy Communion depends upon the Sacrifice made by the individual, the great grace of the Sacrament comes from Our Lord Himself working in the soul;
2. The Walsh Hall chapel has saved many a Novena and many a series of Communions;
3. For real sacrifice the Walsh Hall chapel has the edge on any chapel around here. Many's the time a student has come in after four or five hours of work, fasting to receive Holy Communion. And even when laziness has been a factor in making him late, if he is faithful even though late, when the time comes to make a big sacrifice, he is there!
4. The graces gained in the Walsh Hall chapel have been of inestimable benefit to the University and to the students;
5. Don't begrudge the poor Prefet of Religion a chance to work off a little of his long Purgatory;
6. Don't question the right of the Church to permit distribution of Holy Communion at any time.