

RELIGIOUS BULLETIN.

Feb. 12, 1925.

Prayers for the Sick.

It will be observed that the Bulletin has not been publishing the names of persons who are requesting prayers. These requests have been laid on the altar during the Novena for the Sick which ended yesterday, and will remain during the new Novena which began this morning. Fifteen such requests have been made since Sunday, and twenty-five were handed in before that time.

Be charitable. There is a great deal of sickness among the relatives and friends of students and members of the faculty. If you have been spared this affliction, thank God for it, and remember in your prayers all those who have made such requests. Several of these requests are for extreme cases, two of them for persons dying.

Why Religion Teachers Lose the Faith.

(from exam papers.)

1. "Woe to the man who shall scandalize one of these little ones. It would be better that he were not born or a mill stone be tied about his neck and he be drowned in the depths of the sea."
2. "The sins against prudence are ignorance, stupidity and density."
3. "The chief gifts of our first parents were everlasting happiness and glory in this world and in the next."

Dear Old Notre Dame! What Crimes....

The sophomores, it is reported, feel that they made asses of themselves. Hopeful sign! They may get sense yet. (See answer No. 2, above.)
