

Religious Bulletin
September 15, 1927

Too Hot for a Bulletin?

There is an opinion to that effect, but it may be erroneous. -- After all, it's not the heat, but the humidity, as they say, so a nice, dry Bulletin should do no harm.

The Missions.

Freshmen and off-campus sophomores advance to the home plate next Monday night at 7:30; on the following Sunday night at the same witching hour the rest of the students come together for the patching of the rents in their souls. Mission services are held morning and evening (or a.m. and p.m., as the case may be) and both services are for the benefit of your souls.

Thanksgiving -- and Other Prayers.

The only death this summer was that of a minim who died a few days after the close of school. The University did not lose a student -- and for this favor we must be very grateful to God. Several had narrow escapes in auto accidents, and have asked your cooperation in thanking God.

On the other hand, there were several deaths in the families of faculty members and students, and your prayers are spoken for the repose of the souls. Mr. Confrey, father of two of our professors, died towards the end of Summer School. Gerald Reay, a freshman last year, lost his father early in the summer. Louis Niezer's mother and Fred Baer's father were the tragic victims of auto accidents since the first of September. Frank Bon, president of the senior class a year ago, wires that his father is very low. Andy Conlin, of the same class, asks prayers for a stricken brother. For these, and for the other relatives and friends of students who have been afflicted during recent months, your earnest prayers are in order.

When You Can Go to Confession.

The basement chapel, two entrances to which will be found at the rear of the church, is the principal center of the devotion to the Blessed Sacrament for which Notre Dame is noted. Confessions are heard in this chapel morning and evening from 6:15 till 7:00. Holy Communion is distributed every few minutes after 6:20 in this chapel.

The Sorin Hall chapel, in the east wing of that building, is attended for confessions and Holy Communion from 7:00 a.m. until noon -- in fact all day, if you want to fast that long for Holy Communion. Confessions are heard in this chapel throughout the day. For a confessor use the call button at the door of the chapel.

The various hall chapels have Mass and Holy Communion before breakfast, and confessions every evening after night prayer. The following confessors have been assigned to the hall chapels:

Sorin - Fr. Ward	Morrissey - Fr. Albertson
Corby - Fr. Doremus	Freshman - Fr. J. F. O'Hara
Badin - Fr. Connerton	Sophomore - Fr. Healey
Walsh - Fr. Steiner	Howard - Fr. Glueckert and
Lyons - Fr. Murray	Fr. F. J. O'Hara

The basement chapel is the hall chapel for Brownson and Carroll Halls.

Check Your Calendar.

Mark on the yellow calendar the days you receive Holy Communion. It's a thermometer.