

Religious Bulletin

May 2, 1928

-----

May Devotions Tonight.

We say the Rosary together tonight at 7:30 in the church. This devotion has been somewhat neglected in recent years, since the Sunday services were reduced to simple Benediction. Your attention is called to a special rubric followed here in the recitation of the Rosary: Kneel during the first and last decades, stand for the others.

Flowers For the Altar.

Two seniors furnished the flowers for the Sorin chapel for the beginning of the Month of Our Lady. Others may wish to follow their example. There is a contribution box for flowers at the registration desk in the rear of the chapel. And those who intend to send flowers to their sweethearts next week should not fail to be as generous with Our Lady as they are with their earthly ideals.

We Can -- But Will We?

It is quite possible for us to have a total of 50,000 Communions during the month of May. We were only short 243 of that total in March. To get it we would have to average 1613 Communions a day. We can -- but will we? We will, if we have for the Mother of God the devotion a Notre Dame man should have.

During April the number of Communions was.....28,283 and the daily average was..... 1,230
Since September the total is.....269,894 and the daily average..... 1,316

More Questionnaires.

Since the last detailed report the following questionnaires have been gathered:

Off-campus.....31	Brownson.....2
Lyons.....23	Morrissey.....1
Sophomore..... 4	Howard.....1.
Sorin..... 3	Walsh.....1
Corby..... 3	Carroll.....1
Badin..... 3	Freshman.....0

The total is now 687. Another seventy will give us a good total for the year, and will give the compiler a job that will keep him busy all summer.

The Modern Boy.

"Reports from some of the fashionable boarding schools for girls indicate that the man are having the time of their lives trying to get the girls to stop smoking. One of the worst features of the battle is that when mothers send boxes of goodies from home they often include cigarettes. Strange as it may seem, it is reported from some of the novitiates that occasionally girls going to the convent nowadays find their hardest sacrifice the surrender of smoking. In some girls' schools, a few of the dear little ladies have adopted corncob pipes. "O tempora, O mores!" The growing addiction of women to smoking has at least one good effect: It is keeping some men from taking up the habit." The Denver Catholic Register.

Prayers.

John McMurray was called home yesterday by the death of his grandmother. Another student asks prayers for a sick brother, and one for an accident victim.