Third Sunday Indulgence.

Students and professors who receive the Sacraments on the third Sunday of the month and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father may gain a plenary indulgence. This favor is a special grant of His Holiness to the University of Notre Dame, given in recognition of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

At 11:30 For The Team.

The church bell rings as you leave the dining hall after dinner; this is to remind you of the October Devotions, which on Saturdays are offered for the football team. After Benediction, if you remain in the church, you may be enrolled in the Miraculous Medal.

Mission Sunday.

Is it sufficiently understood that tomorrow is Mission Sunday all over the world? The sermons at the Masses tomorrow will be on the foreign missions. Fr. Brooks will preach at the 7:00 and 9:00 Masses, Fr. Kehoe at the 6:00 and 8:00. Be prepared to contribute to help the Notre Dame priests and brothers who are working in Bengal.

Confirmation.

Second announcement: The Rt. Rev. Bishop of Fort Wayne will confirm at Notre Dame two weeks from today, that is, on Saturday, November 1, the Feast of All Saints. Candidates for the reception of this Sacrament will hand their names to the Prefect of Religion without delay.

Mass of Exposition.

The Mass of Exposition which the Bishop allows us on the Third Sunday of each month will be changed tomorrow from 9:00 to 7:00 o'clock. The change is made in order to have the 9:00 Mass finished before the parish Mass at 10:00. Please note that there will be no 12:00 Mass tomorrow, although there will be a Visitors' Mass at 11:00.

Novena To Saint Jude.

The Feast of Sts. Simon and Jude falls on the 28th of October. Nine days remain before the feast. Those who wish to make a Novena to St. Jude (who is invoked as the "Helper in Desperate Cases") should begin tomorrow. This devotion is brought to the attention of freshmen who expect to be sent home for low scholarship. There is a St. Jude booklet at the pamphlet rack.

To make a Novena you should say the same prayer for nine days and receive Holy Communion each of the nine days. While reception of Holy Communion is not essential to making a Novena, a Novena of Holy Communions is naturally much more effective than a Novena of prayers.

Saturday Morning and Saturday Night.

Holy Communion on Saturday morning carries with it certain obligations for Saturday night. It should hardly be necessary to remind Christians that they should not behave like animals; the suggestion is offered, however, for what it is worth.

Prayers.

Jim Jones, of Howard Hall last year, now at St. Thomas College, is ill with pneumonia; his brother, Coach Wm. Jones, asks your prayers for him. An uncle of Dick Tobin is very ill. Four special intentions.
