Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe.

México aquí te goza Madre Santa,
Tu imagen honra y tu favor espera;
Hazlo feliz, y con tu auxilio, entera
Guarde su fe de Cristo sacrosanta.

(Lineas de León XIII, 1895, año en que su santidad celebró sus bodas de oro de sacerdote, y en el cual autorizo la coronación de la Santísima Virgen de Guadalupe.)

In commemoration of the four hundredth anniversary of the miraculous apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe, El Club de la Raza will assist in a body at a solemn high Mass to be sung by the President of the University at eight o'clock Saturday morning, December 12. All students who are free from class at that hour are invited to attend. (Sermon in Spanish by Fr. Matthew O'Neill, O. Carm., Principal of Mt. Carmel High School, Chicago.)

Find The Adoration Chapel.

Students making their adoration during the Novena are requested to vest in cassock and surplice and kneel before the Blessed Sacrament at the place of exposition, the Bernini Altar, in the apse of the church. Investigation shows that many of you are making it "afar off." The lighted candles show you the location of the Bernini Altar.

Your response to the call for adorers has been magnificent. Forty adorers are needed for each day, to make sure that there are two present at all times while the Blessed Sacrament is exposed. The number of signatures varies between 150 and 200 each day. In addition, there are many students dropping in for adoration periods for which they have not given notice. You, your parents and friends, and the University are profiting immeasurably by this devotion. No better preparation for the Christmas holidays could be made. Students who are fearful of special temptations in vacation are urged to receive Holy Communion and make some adoration during these days.

Christmas Charity.

The response to the recent Bulletin on Christmas charity stands as follows:

Fr. Oliver Krseminski, O.F.M.....	$5.00
Fr. Edward Barron, Maryknoll (Korea).....	4.52
The poor.....	43.67
The Holy Cross Mission in Bengal.....	3.50

'The poor we have always with us' and there are many demands. We have gathered some $167 for their needs thus far, and have spent about $225. Quite a few have been made comfortable by your cast-off clothing. The local council of the Knights of Columbus is now collecting old clothes for the poor of this parish. Off-campus students should leave their offerings in the office of the Director of Off-campus students.

PRAYERS: There will be a Mass at 6:25 tomorrow in the church for the repose of the soul of Jeremiah Callahan, of the Catholic University, who died under tragic circumstances a few days ago. Friends here ask prayers for John Smyanski, of Fordham, who was injured in the Bucknell game; he is not doing well. Faculty members in the hospital are Frs. Woods, Laving and Haggerty and Mr. Collins, Comptroller. Joe Hebert, '28, lost his father yesterday. Vincent O'Neill's father is quite ill. Ed O'Sullivan was called home this morning by the grave illness of his brother. A brother of A. J. McMahon is to undergo an operation soon. Sister M. Ludovica, who spent fifty-nine years in the local convent, at work until a month ago, died yesterday morning. A student asks prayers of thanksgiving for the betterment of his father's health. A cousin of Marvin Huot is very ill. A friend of J.J. O'Brien was accidently killed. Nine special intentions.
