The President's Feast Day Tomorrow.

A spiritual bouquet for the President of the University, Father O'Donnell, is in order. Tomorrow is the feast of St. Charles Borromeo, his patron. Your First Friday Communion should be offered for his intentions. In this Catholic way you can show your appreciation of the fact that Notre Dame's principal endowment is the item of human sacrifice - the religious who conduct Notre Dame and similar schools throughout the world are working without salary, for the glory of God and the good of their neighbor.

Prayer for Priests.

This occasion serves as a reminder that the lay Catholic has a duty to pray for priests. (A form of prayer, suitable for a bookmark, will be found at the pamphlet rack in Dillon Hall.) St. Paul asked his converts to pray for him, lest, while he preached to others, he himself become a castaway. Priests have need of special graces for the correct fulfillment of their duties; you can gain many such graces for them by your prayers, and gratitude demands that you observe this obligation.

The Stations.

The last two stations in Dillon Hall have been subscribed, one by a member of the University staff, and the other by the students in the hall. Three more stations, eight in all, have been subscribed for Alumni Hall - one by the mother of a senior, another by the family of a deceased alumnus, and the third by a priest professor at the University. Six more stations remain to be subscribed for Alumni Hall - there have been inquiries for three of these.

The students in these two halls should join with members of the community in making the stations for the intentions of these generous donors. They have had their satisfaction in showing their love for the Sacred Passion of Christ; but that does not excuse the beneficiaries of their generous donations from the obligation of praying for their benefactors.

First Friday Tomorrow.

6:25 a.m. - Mass of Exposition,
7:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m. - Adoration. Vest in cassock and surplice; use the sanctuary.
7:00 and 7:30 p.m. - Benediction.

Mass Saturday For The Team.

We will try once more. There will be a Mass in the church Saturday morning at 6:25 for the football team. Back in 1928, when there was lots of spirit on the campus, the S.A.C. and Blue Circle organized a calling brigade which visited every room on the campus at 6:00 o'clock in the morning on days when the team played. Those were the days of faith, hope, and charity,

They Love The Poor Souls.

The attention of our sophomore correspondent of yesterday is directed to the following facts which have a bearing on the students' devotion to the Poor Souls:

1317 received Holy Communion on All Souls' Day.
70 lists have been handed in for the two Novenas of Masses.
Walsh Hall, home of senior spirit, home of men, had two representatives at the three Masses on All Souls' Day, and a total of 23 Communion that morning.
