

University of Notre Dame
RELIGIOUS BULLETIN
March 16, 1933

THE DUKE OF APOPLEXY

Big-hearted Duke! He gave up daily Communion for Lent.

(St. Patrick's Day affords him an opportunity to turn commoner again without loss of dignity.)

PRAYERS

Russell O'Shea's condition shows no great change. The mother of Rupe Mills, '16, died last week. Karl Brennan, '30, asks prayers for his fiancee, who is gravely ill. Two friends of an alumnus are ill with mastoiditis. Four special intentions. MASS, Friday, 6:25, Sorin chapel, for the repose of the soul of Fred Erdle's father. (Rochester Club.)