"If Any Man Offend Not In Speech...."

The tongue is indeed a little member and boasteth great things Behold how a small fire kindleth a great wood And the tongue is a fire A world of iniquity

The tongue
is placed among our members which defileth the whole body and inflameth the wheel of our nativity being set on fire by hell

For every nature of beasts and of birds and of serpents and of the rest is tamed
and hath been tamed by the nature of man
But the tongue no man can tame An unquiet evil full of deadly poison

By it we bless
God and the Father and by it we curse men who are made after the likeness of God Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing

My brethren these things ought not so to be Doth the same fountain send forth out of the same hold sweet and bitter water Can the fig tree bear grapes or the vine figs
So neither can salt water yield sweet

Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you Let him show by a good conversation his work in the meekness of wisdom But if you have a bitter zeal and there be contentions in your hearts glory not and be not liars against the truth

-- Epistle of St. James, iii, 1-14
