

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
November 2, 1934

What About Pitt?

Your chance to help answer the question comes tomorrow morning at 6:25. Don't wait until you sit jittery at the radio before you warm up over the game.

Climb out of bed tomorrow morning, when it means a little sacrifice, go together to Mass and Holy Communion in the church. That is the most you can do to prevent injury and to bring success to the team.

It will mean plenty to Coach Layden, to his assistants, and to the players, if we can wire them tomorrow that the largest turn-out of the year offered Mass and Holy Communion for them early in the morning.

They will know then how you really feel about Pitt.

Thank You!

Tony Dunning, Chairman of the Wisconsin dance, and his committee of six, are to be congratulated and thanked on behalf of Bengal for the $36.70 turned in to help the mission.

Everyone who sought to assist Bengal in this way will have a share in the spiritual rewards that come to the sincere almsgiver.

Closing of October Devotions.

Tonight from 6:30 to 7:30 the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on the main altar in the church. You can, during this time, make your half-hour of adoration in honor of the Sacred Heart.

Formal closing of October devotions will be at 7 and 7:30 tonight.

Lest You Forget.

Father Hoever, ill at the Mishawaka hospital, showed improvement yesterday. Don Allen of Badin is also reported as doing satisfactorily at St. Joseph's Hospital, South Bend.

Keep on remembering them both in your Masses and Holy Communions.

Novena For The Poor Souls.

It should consist of Mass and Holy Communion for nine mornings, and of attendance for nine evenings at the special prayers to be recited at 5:00 in the main church.

Your close relatives, friends, and Notre Dame students of the past, who are now in Purgatory, count on you for support. Don't neglect them!

Special Bulletin.

Tomorrow a special bulletin in memory of Gilbert Behrens will announce a special Mass to be said in the church for the repose of his soul. In the meantime, do not forget him in your prayers for the Poor Souls.

PRAYERS: Deceased, father of Tom Lavin, ex'31; two friends of students. Ill, Jack McGinnis (Morrissett); Mrs. Mary Doherty, aunt of a student; cousin of Frank Patka (Morrissett); father of Andrew Mullen; William Murphy (Brownson), appendectomy. Five special intentions.