Lady Grief.

Mary had her part in the sacrifice of Calvary. Trembling in suppressed sorrow she stood and watched her Son tortured and crucified.

This inward martyrdom of Mary is commemorated tomorrow, feast of the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Offer your Mass and Holy Communion tomorrow morning in union with Our Lady's Seven Sorrows.

And if you want to offer your whole life to Mary, you may, with many devout Catholics, live each day in honor of one of her sorrows. Here are the seven sorrows of Our Blessed Mother and the day of the week on which each is venerated:

- (1) Her sorrow at the prophecy of Simeon that a sword would pierce her heart; (Sunday)
- (2) Her flight to safety in Egypt with the Christ child and St. Joseph; (Monday)
- (3) Mary's sorrow when the child Jesus was lost in Jerusalem; (Tuesday)
- (4) Mary's meeting with Jesus on His way to Calvary; (Wednesday)
- (5) Mary at the foot of the Cross--Simeon's prophecy realized; (Thursday)
- (6) Mary with Jesus in her arms after He had been taken down from the Cross; (Friday)
- (7) Mary, finally, at the burial of Jesus; (Saturday)

Quarterly Clothes Drive.

The Quarterly Clothes Drive conducted by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Notre Dame Conference, starts tomorrow and continues through Sunday, April 14th. Representatives from the Society will canvass each floor in every hall.

Articles of clothing of every description, regardless of their nature or condition, will be accepted. These clothes when collected will be quickly distributed among the unemployed in South Bend.

Take an inventory of your wardrobe. Lay aside all the clothing that you care to give to this worthy cause.

Lecture on Therese Neumann.

One of the marvels of the age is Therese Neumann, mystic of Konnersreuth. She has lived for years without taking any food, except the blessed Sacrament.

Tomorrow night at 8:00 in Washington Hall, Father Hoever will lecture on his visit to her home on Good Friday two years ago. He will tell of the strange happenings he witnessed and of his conversations with Therese.

All students are invited to attend.

Acknowledgments.

$4 for Fr. Barron, from local K. of C's; $25 for Bengal from Campus Jewelry Concession.
