Mother's Day.

The Catholic, through the fourth commandment, is taught early to honor both father and mother every day of the year. It is one of the most pleasant and natural of his religious duties. It is, too, a duty that he holds sacred.

Hence, naturally enough, his motive for observing Mother's Day is largely religious. The telegram and bouquet can be simple remembrances; they hardly stand alone as appropriate expression of his sentiments.

Even the student who failed to make the novena for his mother will want to go to Mass and Communion for her next Sunday morning. That will be his chief tribute.

Let him take one resolution at his Thanksgiving Sunday morning--to be, not only Mother's Day, but every day of the year, all that his mother thinks that he is.

Confessionals will be crowded Sunday morning. On account of the movies Friday and Saturday nights, there will not be night prayer. Go to confession tonight or tomorrow night, immediately after supper, in the Dillon, Sorin, or Basement Chapel.

Local Catholic Action.

"Dear Father Cavanaugh:

"Enclosed you will find two checks for the total sum of $15; one is for Father Barron, to assist him in his mission in far-off lands; the other, for $5, is to help replenish the depleted fund of the pamphlet rack.

"The Council further voted benefactions as follows: to Father George Connor (recipient of $50 last December) the sum of $25 to enable him to carry on his work among the negroes in South Bend; to Father Vincent Mooney, director of the Catholic Youth Organization in the Diocese of Fort Wayne, $25, subject to his demand, to enable him to conduct an essay contest on some phase of Catholic Year program, among the Catholic pupils in the high schools of this district; and, $10, to the Notre Dame Chapter of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, to assist them in their work.

"It is deeply regretted by our Council that finances at the present time do not permit a more substantial gift to these works. The Knights of Columbus recently undertook the promotion of Catholic Action, not merely in lip worship, but in effectual and cooperative plans to aid the Catholic Hierarchy wherever the Order is able.

"This is only the beginning and one of the many phases of our very comprehensive program of Catholic Action which we hope to effectuate completely next year.

"With very best wishes, I am

Fraternally yours,
Eli M. Abraham, Fin. Secretary of Notre Dame Council No. 1477, Knights of Columbus."

Congratulations and thanks!
