Something We Have Refrained From Harping On.

Evidently a lot of you think that the Sunday collection at the four Masses is a wow! Here's how wrong you are; after several appeals, the best (and most recent) Sunday collection totals slightly over $40.

The Pamphlet Rack debt is now over $700!!!

Even if everyone cooperated to make the last (next Sunday's) a bumper collection it would not even approach wiping out the debt.

Will each man, then, who can afford it,--and who has this year personally profited by the Pamphlet Racks--kindly drop a quarter into one of the offering boxes tonight, tomorrow, next day, sometime before the week's over?

That's certainly not asking too much of anyone, and it will help a lot. Next Sunday --everybody--get big-hearted and drop something into the collection box!

Just About A Crisis.

It's true that May came soon after Lent this year, and that during Lent you were very faithful to adoration. It's true too that you're busy these last few days of the year getting ready for exams and therefore find it difficult to sign up for adoration.

But it's equally true that unless you make some extraordinary sacrifice, May Adoration will have to be broken off on account of the scarcity of adorers. The Blessed Sacrament may not ever be left alone!

It would be a disgrace if we had to discontinue adoration--of all times--during Our Lady's month of May!

Here is a list of the gaps for Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of this week:

Tuesday, May 21	Wednesday, May 22	Thursday, May 23
9:30-10:00(0)	10:30-11:00(0)	10:30-11:00(0)
10:30-11:00(0)	11:30-12:30(0)	12:00-12:30(0)
11:30-12:00	1:00-1:30	2:00-2:30(0)
2:00-2:30	5:30-6:00(0)	4:00-4:30(0)
4:00-4:30(0)	6:30-7:00

Blank cards for these gaps are as usual ready at the Dillon Pamphlet Rack. Come over and do your bit to help out in the emergency! You will not lose time in getting ready for your exams if you make a half-hour of adoration. Be sure of that!

Especially you seniors, this is your last chance to make a half-hour adoration on Our Lady's campus! You may some day bitterly regret it if you pass up this last chance.

The Bishop's Bouquet.

Specially-printed bouquet cards are now being distributed to the various halls. Please fill out one of these, sign it, and drop it into the Pledge Box in your hall before noon, Friday, the 24th. Give as many Masses and Communion as possible to the Bishop!

MASS: Tues., 6:25, Sorin, for Wayne Millner's mother (second anniversary); request of Monogram Club.

PRAYERS: Deceased, two friends of students. Ill, Charley Hodierno; Ed Dunn; Paul Schrenker; Jean Slavin; Joe Thornburg; sister of Al McCarthy. Six special intentions. Critically ill: Wife of Frank J. McCarthy, '26.
