

Gaps for Sat., May 25:
9:00-9:30; 9:30-10(0);
11-11:30; 1:00-1:30;
1:30-2:00(0). Hurry!!!

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
May 24, 1935

-----
The Bishop.

Bishop Noll stands for us, under the Holy Father, as the highest authority of the Catholic Church.

Monsignors and priests, religious men and women, laity of wealth and power, all Catholics of the diocese, reverence him as their bishop, as the minister of full apostolic power.

His is an office of eminent dignity that reaches back through nineteen centuries of saintly confessors and martyrs to the Twelve Apostles themselves. His power he holds upon the commission of Jesus Christ.

We as faithful subjects owe him filial obedience, loyalty, and respect.

Through his unstinted interest in all Notre Dame activities, through his numerous special favors, through his unfailing expressions of encouragement, Bishop Noll shows a marked predilection for Notre Dame.

Naturally, besides obedience and loyalty and respect, there is strong personal affection for him at the University.

Tomorrow morning we have an excellent opportunity to honor him both officially and personally, and to express our gratitude. He will observe here at Notre Dame his Tenth Anniversary as Bishop of Fort Wayne. At 6:30 he will celebrate Mass in the Main Church.

Students of all halls are asked to attend that Mass in a body and to receive Holy Communion for him. This will be an appropriate conclusion of the Novena started ~~for~~ the Bishop nine days ago.

At the Stadium Sunday.

Bishop Noll will preside over the Deanery Eucharistic Celebration in the Stadium Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

More than 20,000 people are expected to take part in this Celebration. Hence, to avoid confusion, Notre Dame students should assemble on Cartier Field at 2:15 (our time) and there file into the procession.

The program in the stadium--starting at three o'clock--includes an address by the Bishop, followed by Benediction.

Yours should be a representative Notre Dame tribute to the Blessed Sacrament--and to Bishop Noll!

Mass for Deceased Parents.

Have you lost either your father or your mother? Would you be interested in praying with those who have?

A Requiem High Mass will be sung in the Main Church Monday, at 6:25, for the deceased parents of all Notre Dame students. Out of filial love, hear this Mass and offer your Holy Communion in union with the intentions of the celebrant.

PRAYERS: Deceased, mother of Ed Byrnes '25; Mrs. Adolph Schneider, Austin, Tex.; grandfather of Arthur Varnou (Alumni). Ill, cousin of Jim McGuire (Lyons); mother of Joseph Yoch '31; John Lyrno; Bill Boyle; Fred Hogan; Charley Hodierno. 5 sp. ints.