

Mass, 1st Sat. in Lent p. University of Notre Dame
173; 2nd col. of the saints Religious Bulletin
p. 660; 3rd col. of living & February 28, 1936.
dead p. 661.

Ill, cousin of Hall Miller
Two special intentions.

The Way of The Cross.

Rich in indulgences and particularly appropriate during Lent is the Way of the Cross. Every Friday night during Lent this devotion will be conducted at 7:00 o'clock in the main church for students of Carroll and Brownson halls, and for anyone else who cares to come.

Rectors of other halls will make their own arrangements.

The Boo Era?

From a rightfully indignant student (we hope!) comes the following vigorous protest:

"One of the finest traditions treasured by Notre Dame MEN of the past is their GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP. Is the present student body to continue that fine tradition, or are they to be known in the future as students of the BOO ERA at Notre Dame,

"Notre Dame sportsmanship! What has happened to it? Is there such a thing at Notre Dame? If one were to judge by the exhibitions put on by the students at recent basketball games in the gymnasium the answer would be emphatically, NO!!

"But what do we care what others think of us? What do we care how much we insult our guests, the visiting team, and the visiting coach? Yes, what do we care? Or are we always right, is Notre Dame always on the right side and the other team, and THEIR officials, always wrong? Of course when our team is 'booped' away from home the others are still wrong. Can we take it? Again, emphatically, NO!!

"A few short months ago at a different athletic contest our coach saw fit to go onto the field in a protest of a decision. We cheered him. We were ready to fight for him if necessary. A few short days ago a visiting coach saw fit to go onto the floor to protest a decision. Living up to our sense of fair play and good sportsmanship we loudly and vociferously 'B-O-O-E-D' him. You tell him, McGutzky, we sure were good sports!

"If this were the only case of booing at basketball games it might be overlooked, but we also did a good job of booing a team from Illinois that played one of the finest basketball games ever seen at Notre Dame and committed only three fouls in playing it. But we booped anyway. Yes sir, McGutzky, we booped, and HOW!

We have a fine basketball team, a team of outstanding ability, and they play the game fair and square. We have, to back them, a student body with no sense of fair play at all. A championship basketball team and a championship student BOO Body!

"Although they have had no part in it, what do you say we rename our cheering leaders 'BOOLEADERS' and go after the visiting athletic teams with organized and concentrated BOOING? YEA BO!! B-O-O-O-O."

May we depend on you, in assuring this outraged Notre Dame man, that there will be no booing in the future?

PRAYERS: Deceased, friend of Jim Borry, Morrissey; father of Joseph Regali '26, and Paul Regali '33; father of Joe Fitzgerald '29. Ill, friend of Donald Allen; Bert Smit'