The Bengal Bouts.

(And all the trimmings)
at 8 tonight in the Gym.

This paragraph just came in a letter from Father Shea: "Yesterday I took the Tin Lizzie to the Postoffice to see if there would be any foreign mail. I was happy beyond words to receive the check for $175 which your boys succeeded in getting together to help me on my debt. I knew that you at Notre Dame would come through. Let me assure you and the fellows that your backing is a great encouragement to us all.

...It takes a lot of money to run the show over here. Our medicine bill is high. Catechists cost us nearly $100 a month. The poor are a constant drain. And yet things look bright. A few months back some Low Caste Hindus came to the Mission. They were asking for catechists. They are thoroughly disgusted with Hinduism and have sworn to bear no longer the curse of Untouch-ability. If we can get their village it will mean a thousand souls. Never since the time of Christ have things looked so promising for us among the Hindus. I tell you this so that you will realize all that your dollars can mean."

Important Announcement.

Next Sunday, Palm Sunday, Masses will be at 6:00 6:45 7:30 8:15 Breakfast at 7:30. No sermon at any of the Masses. Be on time if you don't want to return for a second Mass. Time for confessions Sunday morning will be necessarily limited. Go to confession tonight or tomorrow night.

Bring your Missal to Mass Sunday! Follow the Passion in English. There will be leaflet missals in the pews for those who have no Missal of their own. (After you use a leaflet missal, leave it in the pew for the fellow to follow you at the next Mass.)

For The Next To Die.

The 6:45 Mass next Sunday will be offered for the next to die. Unite your intention at Mass and Holy Communion Sunday to that of the celebrant of the 6:45 Mass. In doing so you may be praying for the repose of your own soul.

Another Reminder. If by any chance you have not yet made your Easter Duty, take this advice: don't leave the campus until you have gone to Confession and to Holy Communion.
Nowhere will you enjoy larger opportunities than you have here at Notre Dame. And, besides, travel is dangerous.

Signs of Vitality.

About 1525 students have been going to Holy Communion daily since September. Nearly 1700 have gone every day during Lent.....The largest number of students in the history of the University are using the Missal at Mass...One day recently 80 commerce students visited Chicago. At least 75 got up and offered Mass and Holy Communion before breakfast at 6:00. A dozen of them were at a 5:30 Mass in Dillon...Last Wednesday night 56 students were invested in the Third Order of St. Francis.
