Soliloquies of Padre McTigue.

This work with souls is really yours, Christ....In it, I am only Your representative.
So help me....

.....If I but had the power to convince all men that when they sin mortally they are no longer sons of God and brothers of Christ, that they lose the proudest and most significant title any man can own, then we'd really get somewhere.....

Why do some stay away so long? They must know that they are in fighting form against temptation only when they are in the state of grace. Why, O Lord?

There is one now waiting for Holy Communion: something brought him to his senses.
Probably a Mass he knows nothing about; or maybe his mother's constant prayer.....

If they'd only stick to the Mass and to Holy Communion, they'd be always safe.....

Why are some good young fellows so thoughtless about the courtesies due to God in His church? You see them walking out talking and laughing exactly as if they were passing through a hotel lobby.....

Funny, for if they saw an outsider do the same thing, they'd resent it plenty.....

Where do some get the idea that the penance must be said without fail before Communion or before their next confession? Probably they misunderstood the instructions to say their penance immediately after confession in order to avoid neglect.

And why don't all people say their Act of Contrition aloud after their confession?
Then the priest would know for sure that they were saying it.....

Here's a great fellow waiting for Holy Communion...Must come from an excellent family.
Always he comes into the chapel well groomed and takes plenty of time to prepare for Communion and then to thank God afterward.....

Nearly all boys, O Lord, are fine at heart....Help them and help me to help them.....
