

Anniversary of death of grandmother of J. Mangano yesterday.....

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
February 19, 1938.

Your Apostolate.

Catholic youth all over the nation look to you for example, courage and help. They believe that the Notre Dame man has mastered clean living. In him they expect the refreshing smile and the sparkling eye of the chaste man -- the man who is boss of his body, captain of his thoughts and desires. And there isn't a valid reason why each one of you cannot give them the example, encouragement, and help they are looking for.

Sure, it is true, you have your personal struggles, but over against them you have the chance to break bread each day with God, you have the strengthening Blood of the Most Pure Lamb and the special protection of His Immaculate Mother.

Fight It Out.

For the good of American boys and girls, as well as your own good, don't ever let down in your war against filth. Shoot away at the target: the indecent movie, the foul magazine, dirty jokes, bad shows.

From the far west is addressed this appeal:

I know that the young men at Notre Dame are doing a wonderful job in trying to rid the country of indecent magazines. While they are doing this, they should aim their guns also against the manufacture and sale of calendars that offend all womankind. How many falls these pictures occasion. Many more would be sold if certain merchants were not afraid to distribute them!

This Is Catholic Press Month.

You can bolster up your apostolate of example and your fight against filth by good reading. Here are the books which move fastest in the Prefect of Religion's Library, in 117 Dillon Hall:

Adam, Spirit of Catholicism.	Gheon, The Secret of Don Bosco.
Belloc, Characters of the Reformation.	Karrer, Religions of Mankind.
Chesterton, The Autobiography.	Knox, Broadcast Minds.
Chesterton, The Well and the Shallows.	Kuhnelt-Leddihn, The Gates of Hell.
Chesterton, St. Thomas Aquinas.	Lunn, A Saint in the Slave Trade.
Claudiel, Ways and Crossways.	Lunn, Now I See.
Dawson, The Making of Europe.	Lunn, Spanish Rehearsal.
Dawson, Progress and Religion.	Maritain, An Introduction to Philosophy.
Dawson, The Modern Dilemma.	Maritain, An Introduction to Logic.
Dawson, Medieval Religion.	Maritain, St. Thomas Aquinas.
Delany, Married Saints.	Mauriac, Life of Jesus.
Dudley, Shadow on the Earth.	Pfleger, Wrestlers with Christ.
Dudley, The Masterful Monk.	Sargent, Four Independents.
Dudley, Pageant of Life.	Sargent, Thomas More.
Dudley, The Coming of the Monster.	Sheed, The Irish Way.
Fanfani, Catholicism, Protestantism, Capitalism.	Stewart, Diversity in Holiness.
Feeney, Fish On Friday.	Von Hildebrand, In Defense of Purity.
Gheon, The Secret of the Little Flower	Waugh, Edmund Campion.
Gheon, The Secret of the Cure d'Ars.

These new arrivals are worthy of special mention: Morgan, Reporter at the Vatican; Staunton, The Philosophy of Common Sense; Walsh, Philip II; Maisie Ward, Insurrection and Resurrection.

PRAYERS: (deceased) father-in-law of Dr. A.J.Boyle. Ill (seriously) grandmother of Al Perrine (Fresh); aunt of Norbert Merdzinski; brother of J.Buckler (Fresh). 4 spec.int.