

Make Your
EASTER DUTY

TOMORROW MORNING
In Your Own Hall Chapel

If necessary, go to confession tonight! Confessions will be heard, as usual, in each Hall Chapel after night prayer; in Dillon, Howard and Cavanaugh Halls from 6:30 till 10:00 p.m.

Hall rectors and prefects will expect full representation tomorrow morning.

Even if you have received Holy Communion since the First Sunday of Lent, go again tomorrow morning. Putter-offers need the stimulus of good example.

If your buddy or room-mate is a Sleeper-inner, get him up on time.

Indulgences

Many of you have asked what indulgences may be gained by reciting the rosary which you get from the offices of the Prefect of Religion Department. Here they are:

1. Crozier. 500 days for each Our Father and Hail Mary; five decades, 75 years and 125 days.
2. Dominican. (a) An indulgence of 100 days for every Our Father and Hail Mary. (b) For pronouncing devoutly the Holy Name of Jesus in each Hail Mary, 5 years and 5 quarantines. (c) For saying 5 decades, 300 days. (d) For saying five decades, 5 years and 5 quarantines.

To gain the Dominican Indulgences you must meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary.

A daily indulgence of 100 years and 100 quarantines is granted to all those who carry the Rosary with them even if they do not recite it.

3. Bridgetine. 100 days for every Our Father and Hail Mary; five decades, 15 years and 25 days. To gain the Bridgetine Indulgences you must recite five or six decades, adding the Apostles' Creed after each decade. If six decades are recited three Hail Marys must be added so that sixty-three Hail Marys are thus recited in honor of the 63 years of the Blessed Virgin's life on earth.

The Crozier, Dominican and Bridgetine Indulgences may be gained by one and the same recitation.

The Indulgence of a Happy Death, which is attached to the cross on your rosary, is a plenary indulgence at the hour of death. For this confession and communion are required. If these are impossible at least pronounce mentally or orally the Sacred Name of Jesus.

Lecture Tonight

Robert Speaight, famous English actor, who played the leading role in St. Thomas à Becket for four years in London, and recently in New York and Boston, will lecture in Washington Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. His subject will be on Thomas of Canterbury.

MASS — 7:20, Dillon, Tuesday, for Clark Reynolds' father; request of New Jersey Club.

PRAYERS: (deceased) third anniversary of Joe Sullivan (1935); anniversary of Bill Mitchel and Charles Casey; mother of Bob Mason (Fresh.); Mr. Michael O'Gallagher, friend of Pat McDonnell (Zahm); friend of Tom Maher (St. Ed's.). Ill, George Jackoboice ('31); seriously, John Aitken (St. Ed's.); father of Ray Naber (St. Ed's.); sister of Tom Grady (Zahm); injured, sister and sister-in-law of Joe Buckler (Fresh.). Two special intentions.