

Confessions Sat. nite
in Cavanaugh Chapel,
after the first show.

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
September 24, 1938

8:30 Mass Sun. for
Gene Kelly who died
as a Senior in '27.

Please Get This Exception Straight.

Tomorrow night the Second Mission opens. Hence at 7:30 all upperclassmen from Sorin, Walsh, Alumni, Dillon, Howard, Morrissey, Lyons and (please note!) the Old Infirmary will be pouring into Sacred Heart Church. That means all other students will assist, by exception, at the early Benediction.

To be perfectly clear, these are the halls due at 7:00 o'clock: Freshman, Cavanaugh, Zahm, St. Edwards, Brownson, Carroll and Badin.

"A Word To The Wise Is Sufficient."

If the upperclassmen will only respond, for their own good, to the graces of the Mission as the younger men did, the University will be off to another successful year spiritually. Let each do his share to keep God's blessing upon Notre Dame.

Here is the schedule of confessors for the second Mission!

Evenings

Fr. O'Hara	Gospel Alcove	Fr. E. Burke
Fr. Lee	Epistle Alcove	Fr. Laskowski
Fr. Grimm	Epistle Transept	Fr. Grimm
Fr. Lynch	Gospel Transept	Fr. Lynch
Fr. Gartland	West Main Entrance	Fr. Gartland
Fr. Hope	East Main Entrance	Fr. Hope

The facilities in the Dillon, Howard, Cavanaugh and Basement Chapels are well known to every upperclassman. If the priest should happen to be out of the box buzz twice and he'll hop back in.

Try To Lift It A Little.

The number of Holy Communions received during the first three days of the First Mission fell slightly short of the number recorded on the corresponding days last year.

	1938	1937
Monday	1405	1546
Tuesday	1519	1598
Wednesday	1547	1606

Notre Dame has no false idea on statistics. She realizes well that numbers as such don't count, yet she also knows that definite figures bear a definite meaning. If 80,000 wild fans ram the gates of the Yankee Stadium, that surely means New Yorkers think a lot of the Yankess. If 2,000 students reverently crowd their way to the Tabernacle in Sacred Heart Church, that indicates Notre Dame's heart is warm toward Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. If the number perceptibly drops, something is preferred to Our Lord: sleep, sin, study, something. And that isn't right for a Christian. Christ comes first.

Thanks Be To God.

Joe Menger, '25, writes from San Antonio, Texas: "Frank Thomas, '23, and his Alabama team worked out here Monday enroute to California to play U.S.C. They left here on the ill-fated train which killed 10 and hurt 70. Fortunately they got off at El Paso."

PRAYERS: (deceased) father of Vincent Michael Teders, '31, and Robert Joseph Teders, '30-'33; grandfather of Herb Gans (Freshman); grandfather of Jim Tracey (Mor.); anniversary of death of father of Jim Tanner (Dil). Ill, sister of Tom Carroll (Cav.).