

Mass for Coleman
Hails tomorrow at 7:20, Howard Chapel.

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
October 4, 1938.

Mass for mother of Ed.
McDermott, Wed. 6:25,
St. Ed's Chapel.

-----
Catholic Army.

Success demands organization, system, a plan. Generals know battles aren't won by mobs. The only way to attain objectives is to formulate a wise method, prosecute it systematically. Nazis know that.

So with your campaign of life. Failure to live by means suited to ends in view signifies inevitable defeat. Business men who work when they feel like it, who follow whims, eventually drown in a sea of red ink. In the fight for heaven, "God helps those who help themselves." You can't get along without a system.

The Third Order of St. Francis, an order for Catholics living in the world, offers an unbeatable plan of campaign. Pope Gregory IX likened it to an army. Thirty-nine popes have approved of its tactics, have exhorted Catholics to join its colors. Its plan is simple. Its members frequently confer on methods to follow. It is indulgenced with extraordinary generosity. It fights for Christ under the guardianship of the Queen of Heaven.

First meeting of Notre Dame Tertiaries this year will be in Dillon Hall Chapel tonight at 7:45. All may come who wish, even those who have no intention of joining.

Your Attention, Please.

While you're saying the beads in the Adoration Chapel these days, especially too when you're praying and are "stuck", think of Eddie Carty and his friend, Jack Kaley. Yesterday Father O'Hara received the following letter:

I am writing to ask you a favor. I am Eddie Carty, the crippled boy who owes you thanks for many previous kindnesses.

Well, Father, one of my best friends died a few minutes ago. His name was Jack Kaley. He lived next door to us and has always been very good to me. He was stricken with appendicitis last Sunday and died today. He was a good living Catholic, a hard working man with a wife and two children.

Although he never went to Notre Dame, he was like myself one of Notre Dame's staunchest supporters. And his one ambition was to send his boy to Notre Dame. My Mother and brother and sister are helping all they can. I can do nothing but pray for him.

I am asking you to have the boys remember him in their prayers at Notre Dame. I know that would please him more than anything else. Please have them also pray for my Dad who has been down several months with angina.

Give my best regards to Elmer Layden and his boys and tell him I will be listening to every game and praying that they may come through safe and successful.

So wishing all success and prosperity to you, the faculty and students of Notre Dame, God bless you all.

Father O'Hara has promised Eddie a Mass for Jack. Won't you join in with your assistance at Mass and your Holy Communions for Jack's repose? And don't forget Jack's wife and two children.

PRAYERS: (deceased) friend of Larry Hess (Sorin); sister of Joe Regan (Zahn); grandmother of Lou (Sorin) and Walter (Carroll) Ottmer; Mr. Foley; Sister M. Geraldine; friend of Phil Lucier (Zahn); Mr. Robert Dennis, o.s. (1918-1931). Ill, aunt of Bob Byrnes (Lyons); (critically) Mr. William Schrumm (former policeman at N.D.); mother of John Francies (Dillon). Three special intentions. One thanksgiving.