

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
October 31, 1938

Monday Mention.

Well, Army's mule sure made a big fuss in the first half, really turned us around. Then we kicked the mule in the second.

* * * *

Weekend's over, cut hang-overs short. Holy-day Masses tomorrow same as Sunday. No freshmen at the ten. Ask All Saints to put you back on schedule: Mass, Communion. Confessions tonight, as always, till ten. Give us a buzz.

* * * *

Carroll's up in the air, wants the Bulletin to finish something it started last Thursday. . . No, dear Carroll, McGutzky doesn't live in your hall. Not in Alumni nor Lyons either. "Mac" doesn't live in any one hall. He's very unreal. No guy, in life, could match him. "Brick's" just the campus scapegoat, visited with all the sins of this generation of students. He's always been overdrawn, always liked or disliked cordially.

* * * *

But there's plenty of truth in McGutzky. You'll find some of "Brick" in every hall. The Bulletin said: on the train "Mac's" a loud guy; downtown a sap with the girls; in Carroll-- and this was mild-- just a sleepy-head. When McGutzky whistles or boos in Washington Hall, perhaps he's from Cavanaugh. It's hard to tell in the dark. But he certainly isn't the exclusive property of Carroll Hall.

* * * *

In Carroll, as a matter of fact, life in the dorms, the study hall and the locker room isn't so swanky as it is in some of the other halls. And as everyone knows droves of Carrollites drop into the Basement Chapel each morning, stop off at the Grotto on their way to breakfast.

* * * *

But there are, in Carroll, as in every hall, some few who try to "duck" Christ.

If they think no one cares, they're wrong. Pray for them hard.

* * * *

To the campus in general: Toughen up. You are writhing from pin-pricks. The Bulletin of a decade ago would have stabbed your tender skins. A decade ago Notre Dame men could take a jab, even like it. Blood-letting's good if the blood is bad.

* * * *

Tomorrow is the fourth anniversary of Gil Behren's death. Two Masses, the 7 & 10, will be said for his soul. Remember to pray for his mother's special intentions.

* * * *

Wednesday will be the Feast of All Souls. On that day each priest is privileged to say three Masses. You will want to hear three. The Novena for the Poor Souls begins Thursday. Nine nights, 5 PM, Big Church.

* * * *

Ever since Wednesday's published report of contributions to The Bread Club, new wheat has been cut, more dough raised, long loaves baked for Father Flanagan's Friends:

Previously acknowledged.....	$54.84
Sophomore Cotillon.....	50.00
Noblemen of Cardboard Palace...	12.35
Rev. A. G. Mihm, Pittsburgh....	5.00
Gentlemen of Old Infirmary.....	3.50
Mrs. Henry Behrens.....	2.00
Mr. Thomas Barry.....	2.00
Cavanaugh (additional).....	1.75
Miscellaneous.....	2.21
Total to date	$133.65

And the secret has dropped from the sleeve of the S.A.C. --a dance, Navy Weekend, for BOYS TOWN. Get tickets from the S.A.C.

* * * *

No Bulletin tomorrow, but a ballot. Two Yes or No questions, then plenty of space for names.

PRAYERS: (deceased) father of Charles Stine (Off-Campus); grandfather of Ed Dissler (Scr.). Ill, (operation) cousin of D. Harris (Al.); brother-in-law of J. Maloney (Fed.)