UNITY OCTAVE INTENTION FOR SATURDAY: RETURN OF LUTHER-ANS ETAL. PROTS. OF EUROPE.

Beg Your Pardon.

That High Mass yesterday at 6:25 in Sacred Heart Church was requested by Professor de Landero and his fencers for Father Farley. Mistakenly the Bulletin attributed it to the La Raza Club. As a matter of fact the Spanish Boys are having their Mass for Father Farley tomorrow morning in the Cavanaugh Chapel at 7:25. You're invited, too.

Professor Bartholomew Thanks You.

"One of the things that has touched me most has been the thoughtful attitude of my students. The sight of 'my boys' filing past Mother's casket I shall never forget. I know that Mother is proud of them. Notre Dame was almost as much her school as mine. I know that she will pray for them. With the examinations coming next week, they might very well ask her to help them. Let them call on our new 'ambassador' at the Court of the Lord. . . Father O'Hara once said concerning politeness in general that 'like an air cushion there may be nothing in it, but it makes the rough road of life a little bit easier.' As Mother's funeral cortege wound through the campus last Saturday morning, numbers of students stood with bared heads. That slight mark of respect meant a great deal to us who were left to mourn. . . Thanks to the priests for their Masses. Each day brings further word, either directly or indirectly, of Masses said, Masses heard, and Holy Communions received."

Thank you, professor. By your own good teaching and good example you have won high regard in the Notre Dame family. And last week's bereavement was our family affair.

Fateful, Cataclysmic Days.

To stimulate your interest in getting hold of Catholic facts and Catholic comment at least once a week regularly, the Bulletin has tentatively worked out a plan with the Ave Maria's business manager. Lay down five cents in Dillon, Howard or Cavanaugh and the Ave is yours. This week you have "A Message From Lima," "From College President to Passionist," "For God and Spain" (fact not fiction), and, among others, these Notes and Remarks:

- SAINTING MRS. HOWARD.....Jay Allen, ex-Trib reporter said Franco was "just a Boy Scout laboring with the Sacred Heart to save Spain." Mrs. Howard, a convert, gave Jay the K.O.
- VINDICATED.....Capital scoffers had been making Mr. Dies butt of too many jokes. But isn't $150,000 small price to pay to expose our worst enemies-- whoever they are?
- CZECHOSLOVAKIA COMES BACK.....Mr. Benes (pronounced Benish) routed Christ from Czechoslovakia. Christ is back. But Benes is teaching American youth in a midwest university!
