EASTER DUTY

TOMORROW MORNING

in your own hall chapel

If necessary, go to confession tonight! (You won't have a chance in the morning.) As usual confessions will be heard in each Hall Chapel after night prayer; and in the Cavanaugh, Howard and Dillon chapels continuously from 6:30 till 10:00 (maybe midnight). If any special arrangement affects your hall—"strange" confessor, etc.,—you'll hear of it at night prayer tonight.

Cooperate with your Rector and Prefects. They expect full representation at the rail tomorrow morning. Each Hall is a sheepfold. Christ seeks tomorrow every lost sheep! If you stay away, you willingly run from the loving arms of Christ the Good Shepherd. It will be your funeral—not your rector's nor prefect's nor anyone else's—if, after tonight and tomorrow, the grace of making a good confession and receiving a worthy Holy Communion returns not again.

St. Peter said: "Brethren, be sober and watch, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, goeth about, seeking whom he may devour: whom, resist ye, strong in faith. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy on us."

At the end of every Low Mass, for years, you have prayed: "Holy Michael, Archangel, defend us in the day of battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. Rebuke him, O God, we humbly pray, and do thou, Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust down into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls."

Catholic Action: When Paul McGuire was here, he stressed this important point: Your mission, in Catholic Action, is not to the factory worker in skyscraper New York, nor to the salmon fisher off the barren coast of Alaska, nor to the poor Mexican miner deep in the earth. Your mission, especially now, is to one another. According to Christ's mind and the mind of Christ's Church you are decidedly your brother's keeper. For we are all one Body—Christ.

Exhorted St. Paul: "Walk worthy of the vocation in which you are called, with all humility and mildness, with patience, supporting one another in charity, careful to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, one body and one Spirit; as you are called in one hope of your calling. One Lord, one faith, one baptism. One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in us all."

One Easter Duty common to all: So, whether you're saint or sinner, frequently at the Lord's Table or seldom, tomorrow's the day to manifest to the world your faith in Christ and the Catholic Church, your faith in yourself! Your priests, rectors and prefects are cooperating to the full. You cannot say the Good Shepherd has no care for you. * * * Show your good will and zeal tomorrow. If your pal lags a little, push him into the line outside of Christ's "mercy box." If he's timid about breaking Bread with Our Lord, lock your arm in his, lead the way—tomorrow!
