To The Courteous.

Thank you for forming the intention tonight of being on time tomorrow for Holy Mass.

To Those Who Skipped The Missions.

These are the words which the Bible puts into the mouths of the damned as they think of those who are saved and with God:

These are they whom we once held in derision,
And for a parable of reproach;
We fools esteemed their life madness,
And their end without honor.
Behold how they are numbered among the children of God,
And their lot is among the saints.

But, at this stage, it is useless to quote the Bible to those who missed the Missions. What they need is to come down from their high-hat pedestal of "pure reason," or to come up from their black basement of despair, or to burst out of their stuffy closets of mediocrity and indifference where they are suffocating their spirit.

To Bishop Subercaseaux.

Previously the Bulletin acknowledged $212.50 given by the students for your work of reconstruction in Chile. Since then, the University has added $200.00; the Buffalo Legionnaires, who stopped in for Mass last Sunday on their way to Chicago, swelled the collection by $32.61; an anonymous donor gave $100.00; and those of the faculty, whom the basket could not reach in crowded Sacred Heart Church two weeks ago, generously contributed $27.66. *** That brings your total so far to $572.77. May it increase!

To All Who Signed Up For Adoration.

Please be always on time for the half-hours you've contracted with Christ. Move in and out of the Lady Chapel, where Our Eucharistic Lord is enthroned on the Bernini altar, quietly so as not to disturb the other Adorers.

Vest in cassock and surplice a few minutes before your time is scheduled. You will find this clerical clothing out in the sacristy. Use the pamphlets you find on the kneelers, but don't walk away with them. The next Adorer may wish to read them, too.

If you can't make your period, buttonhole one of your pals. Make him promise to fill up the gap you would otherwise leave. Our Lord should never be left alone.

Pray, while you're there, for yourselves. Pray for the rest of the gang. Pray for your mothers and dads, your Church, the United States, the Notre Dame Student Commission for Peace. Pray for Hitler and Stalin (God, return them to sanity!). Pray for Bill Washington, Emil Luckey and Art Tracy--the three of you who have met God face to face within the past six weeks. Pray for the Poor Souls. Pray for the Missions.

To Those Who Like YOUTH And THE CATHOLIC DIGEST.

Pick up YOUTH at the main entrance of the Church tomorrow. Leave your name in Dillon, Howard or Devanagh if you wish to obtain THE CATHOLIC DIGEST at fifteen cents a copy.
