Dear Notre Dame Men:

This mission in Mississippi is not a mission but a collection of missions.
I have three places along the L. & N.
line: English Lookout, the Rigolets and St. Catherine. I must borrow a boat to get to these places to give the people a chance to make their Easter Duty....There is so much work to be done....A certain gang doesn't like this missionary work and would thwart it....I have to settle disputes about stolen pigs....And I'm trying to be my own cook (with thots of you eatin' in the Caf!)....Roads all clogged....heat wicked....One of my churches a glorified barn....WPA parishioners give me fruits and vegetables....Please get me what help you can. Sincerely in Holy Cross, Fr. Vic.

This courageous woman
braves the insults
of the multitude and the brutality of the guard. She comes forward, wipes the face of her Saviour,
and deservedly bears
away with her the image of His blessed
countenance imprinted
on the linen.

O Jesus! shall the fear of the opinion
of others deter me
from proclaiming myself Thy disciple?
No, I will brave it.
Give me grace to en-
grave Thy love on my heart."

THE SIXTH STATION (A Pious Woman Wipes The Face of Jesus)

Do not make the mistake of thinking that Veronica was more privileged than you are.

You are meeting Our Lord on the Way of the Cross every day:
in His hated, destitute Negro; in His
much maligned Jew;
perhaps in a worried
roommate of yours.

Are you stopping to wipe His face? To give Him a hand-out?
To clothe His nakedness? To bind up
His wounds? Read
Matthew XXV, 31-46.

RELIGIOUS SURVEY — LENT, 1940

After you have filled in your answers briefly, candidly (and, of course anonymously) return it to the Office of the Prefect of Religion either through the mail or one of the boxes left in the Halls for this purpose.
