Scene Shifts

It is a good thing that the Schoolmen are not attempting to put on their formal discussion of free-will tonight in the Law auditorium. Judging from last night's overflow crowd, there would not be half enough room.

More comments tomorrow. Tonight's Bulletin merely announces: "You're missing something essential to Catholic Education if you're not in WASHINGTON HALL TONIGHT AT 8."

When You Miss ONE Holy Communion.

It is well for you to consider what you lose every morning that you pass up Holy Communion:

1. You miss a personal visit with Jesus, author of all spiritual energy and of all holiness;
2. You lose a special increase of sanctifying grace, which makes your soul more pleasing to God;
3. You lose a quota of sacramental grace, which entitles you to special help in times of temptation and in the discharge of your daily duties;
4. You lose a precious opportunity of having all your venial sins wiped away;
5. You miss the special preserving influence which each Holy Communion confers against the fires of passion;
6. You miss the opportunity of having remitted a part, or all, of the temporal punishment due to your sins;
7. You lose the spiritual joy, the sweetness, and particular comfort that come from a fervent Holy Communion;
8. You lose part of the glory that your body might enjoy at its resurrection on the Last Day;
9. You lose the greater degree of glory you would possess in Heaven for all eternity;
10. You may lose:
  - a. complete victory over some fault or passion;
  - b. some particular grace long prayed for;
  - c. the conversion or salvation of some soul;
  - d. deliverance of a relative or friend from Purgatory;
  - e. many graces for others, both the living and the dead.

Will a few extra minutes of sleep repay you for all these losses?

From the Tulsa Tribune.

"Intelligent readers know that news from the warring countries is subject to censorship. Propaganda is subtle and difficult to detect. But nothing can warrant sacrificing our sons. America must keep the peace." * * * It is perhaps saying too much to say that nothing can warrant sacrificing our sons. But it should certainly be something tremendous and an absolutely clear issue and more good than evil should be in sight before our sons tread an inch to war!
