Your Questionnaire.

The annual religious questionnaire will be delivered to you Saturday or Sunday in place of a Bulletin. The questionnaire provides an annual inventory for your spiritual life.

The week end will be a fine time to look it over. Be honest and frank in your answers. It is a matter between you and God. After you have filled it out, please place it UNSIGNED in one of the boxes placed in your hall.

Answering the questionnaire will help you to avoid the idleness and ennui that causes Sunday blues.

Sunday at Mass.

1. The collection will be for the Pope's Fund for Catholic Relief in Europe. Be generous in aid of the millions suffering there.
2. At the 8:30 High Mass please rise promptly for the Pater Noster as soon as the priest starts to sing the Per Omnia and the Oremus introducing the Pater Noster.

Rockne's Anniversary.

Monday is the 10th anniversary of Rockne's death. There will be a Requiem High Mass, sung by the Student Choir, at 7:10 Monday morning in Dillon Chapel. In Dillon there is an altar dedicated, in memory of Rockne, to St. Olaf, the patron saint of Norway.

Drop in to Dillon for Mass on your way back from breakfast and offer your prayers for the soul of this great character.

Where Is Joy?

Many students, after Easter Duty Day, are smiling. They came out of their nose-dive, made their Easter Duty, and found joy.

Others are still missing. The Prefect doesn't have to use an airplane to locate them -- and he's still smiling, and praying that they'll break loose from the devil and the deep blue sea and come up for air -- and they'll find joy, too.

If You Want Truth.

The Bulletin recently warned you not to take your religious news from secular newspapers. It suggested caution in accepting the recent news story of the conversion of Pastor Niemoeller, the heroic Lutheran minister who was thrown into a concentration camp for defying Hitler. Secular papers this week carry Niemoeller's denial of his conversion. Maybe it is true; maybe it isn't. You'll get the truth on religious matters from your Catholic papers and magazines.

The Sunday Visitor is free at the church doors. At the three pamphlet racks are the Sunday Visitor, the Ave Maria, and the Denver Catholic Register.

Skeptics, Come In.

Several expressed appreciation of the letter in Thursday's Bulletin. One admitted it was good, but kidded the Prefect, accusing him of ghost-writing -- until the original letter was produced. Any other doubters? Office hours: 6:30 - 12 M; 7 - 10 P. M.

PRAYERS: Deceased: Relative of Fr. Gorman, C.S.C.; Frank F. Beaud, '03; Father of E. J. Kilmurry, '35. 4 Spec. Intentions. Seriously ill: Friend of Bro. Angelus.
