Tomorrow - Make Your Easter Duty.

It will give lax companions courage to see you at Confession tonight and to hear you speak about joining the rest in the Hall in Holy Communion tomorrow. Say a little prayer - a Hail Mary - for one you know who has been slipping away from Christ and penance that he will get to Confession tonight, somewhere:

- . . . Basement Chapel: 6:30 - 7:00
- . . . Dillon, Howard: 7:00 - 10:00
- . . . Cavanaugh
In the Hall After night prayer
(Go tonight. There's not much time in the morning.)
(Offer to awaken your friends tomorrow for Mass.)

Sin - Get It off Your Chest - Worry.

Sin. Christ is merciful. There is no sin He will not forgive, as long as the sinner is sorry for his offense and has resolved to do better. Christ forgave Magdalen. She came back. Slip into the chapel tonight for a visit with Christ, and then go to Confession.

Fear of Confession. What is the source of the fear? You don't know how to confess what you have done? You are ashamed of your sins? You can't recall the number of falls, and all your various sins?
How to do it: Kneel in the chapel for a few minutes. Be sorry for your sins, and ask the Holy Ghost to help you. Do your best in recalling your sins. Just get a general idea of the number of falls. And then enter the confessional and say:

"Father, I'm all upset and afraid.
Will you help me?" (The priest will do the rest.)

A Personal Problem: What is it? Studies? Vocation in life? Bad habits? Don't let the sun go down on a worry. Get it off your chest immediately. See a priest. The Prefects of Religion are in their offices for consultation every night until ten.

The Statues Will Be Covered Until Easter.

Sunday is called Passion Sunday. It opens the season of Passion-tide. In Catholic churches the crosses, crucifixes, statues of Our Lord, Our Lady and the Saints will be covered with purple veils so that we may more easily direct our thoughts to the Passion of Our Savior. The first four weeks of Lent Mother Church spent in telling us about the forty day fast of Christ. Throughout the next two weeks She wants us to consider prayerfully the Passion, the sorrows Our Redeemer underwent for our salvation. (The long Gospel of the Passion is not read until next Sunday which is Palm Sunday.)

Freshmen, Please!

You are forbidden to attend the 10:00 Mass on Sunday. The 8:30 Mass is the last one you may attend.
