Tell The Folks You're Back.

They are anxious to know that you returned safely to the campus. At least send a post card. Pick up one in the Caf or the Bookstore and send it today. The folks will be glad to receive a word of appreciation for all their thoughtfulness toward you during your stay at home - the car, money, entertainment, encouragement.

If you didn't go home over the week-end but visited relatives or the home of your roommate, send your hosts a note of thanks. Those of you who will enter the Army or Navy at the close of this semester should write more frequently to your parents because they are more than ever concerned about you and your future. One student on the campus is faithful to the practice of sending a letter to his parents every Sunday and a post card every Wednesday.

April Showers. . .

. . .bring May flowers - and head colds, fevers, sinus trouble to the fellow who cruises about the campus on rainy days without a hat or rubbers. Hatless head and rubberless feet on wet days are not signs of masculinity. A real "man" is prudent. The effects of imprudence are not desirable: two or three days in bed, making up classes, physical weakness.

Some Should Worry.

The Easter vacation is over. Size up yourself. Was everything you said and did recorded to your credit by the Recording Angel in Heaven? You should have some concern about yourself if there was repetition of old faults. The charges of new strength which your soul needs are received at the Communion rail. It is especially by Holy Communion that Christ doctors your weak will. Bring yourself to Christ every morning in the chapel. Start anew by Confession tonight.

Are You Worried?

Sit down and talk over the problem with a priest. There are some difficulties you can't solve by yourself. It makes little difference what your worry is - studies, your future state of life, weakness in virtue, your family - bring it to one who can be of some assistance to you. If your problem does not clear up within twenty-four hours, drop in to see your confessor, your prefect or one of the Prefects of Religion (Dillon, Tower Room in Sorin, Cavanaugh).

Seniors in Sorin.

It's easier than ever for you to receive Holy Communion should you rise late. You don't have to leave the hall. Just press the buzzer at the chapel door and the Prefect of Religion will distribute Communion to you. There is a late Mass at 7:20 daily in Sorin Chapel.

Calling All Seniors!

Watch for further announcement regarding special Novena for Seniors beginning Monday.

More Money For the Poor.

Nine dollars more has come in for the House of Hospitality. One of the dollars came from a student. The total return is now $187.10.
