Greetings!

To the Upperclassmen: Welcome back! To the Freshmen and transfer students: Welcome to the campus of Our Lady! The statue on the golden Dome symbolizes the kind of reception Our Lady gives you - with open arms ready to embrace and help each one of you as her own son.

Happenings Over Vacation.

Joe Foltz of Brownson Hall died just as you were beginning your vacation. Joe was well enough to leave the hospital in South Bend. After a few days at home in Indianapolis he took a definite turn for the worse and died early on the morning of Saturday May 9. All of you knew Joe to be a real N.D. man. Every morning he was up to serve a 6:00 Mass in the Basement chapel. Joe's parents, his brother and sister have been told that you will remember him in your prayers. Go to Mass tomorrow for him.

While you were away a new group of Navy men arrived at Notre Dame for their training. Continue to manifest the Notre Dame spirit of kindness, cooperation and sacrifice that drew much unsolicited praise from the first group. Make these new men feel right at home.

Coming Events.

1. Classes. Every second of study and classroom work gains merit for heaven - if done in the state of grace. Get to confession tonight if need be, and start your school year with Christ.
2. Saturday is Memorial Day. Get up for Mass to pray for the soldier dead of this war and the last one. Your brothers, friends, and Notre Dame men call from Purgatory for your help.
3. Sunday - the last day for fulfilling Easter Duty. If a Catholic does not receive Holy Communion between the first Sunday of Lent and Trinity Sunday he commits a mortal sin. See the list of confession hours below.
