

The Scapular Medal

Our Blessed Mother has made a promise to those who show honor to her by wearing her scapular: "Whoever wears the scapular until death, will be preserved from hell." It is credible tradition that the Blessed Virgin appeared to St. Simon Stock at Cambridge, England in 1251 and made this promise.

The scapular in question is the Carmelite scapular. It is usually after First Communion that one is enrolled in this scapular. The scapular medal takes the place of the cloth scapular which was used in the ceremony of enrollment. When you ask for a medal from one of the Prefects of Religion, you are given one of these medals.

The medal is not a goodluck piece. It is a badge worn in honor of Our Lady. By wearing it one wants to show devotion to the Mother of God. "Whoever, therefore, even though he be now a sinner, wears the badge of the Mother of God throughout life as her faithful servant, not presumptuously relying on the scapular as on a miraculous amulet, but trustfully confiding in the power and goodness of Mary, may securely hope that Mary will through her powerful and motherly intercession procure for him all the necessary graces for true conversion and for perseverance in good."

Tomorrow is the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Come down to Mass wearing her medal and ask her to grant you a happy death. The scapular, like the rosary, has become the sign of a true Catholic and devout follower of Mary. Live like Our Lady wants you to live, and she takes care of you at death.

Communion in Dillon

Seventeen different times last Monday Holy Communion was distributed from the Blessed Sacrament altar in Dillon chapel. The number of Seniors using this privilege can be counted on the fingers of one hand. If there is time to sleep late, there is time to prepare one's soul for eternity. Were you at the rail at any of these times?

Prayers

The brother of Pat O'Brien of Breen-Phillips suffered a brain concussion in an accident last Saturday and has been unconscious ever since. A graduate of last year writes: "It will be a serious operation this Friday and will you please get N.D. on its collective knees. Just tell them - 'operation, N.D. man, '42, asks your prayers.' With that we can't lose."

Hot Magazines

Play with fire and you will get burnt. There are some picture and story magazines which will lead you into serious sin. To buy these magazines is a mortal sin. To pass them around to others is scandal, and another mortal sin. The fellow who dabbles in such literature is playing with hell-fire, and that burn is eternal.
