

Tomorrow is
First Friday. . .

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
August 6, 1942

. . .Benediction after supper for all.

- - -

The Lexington Had No Catholic Chaplain.

Yesterday after the evening Mass in his talk to the Navy men and students to be confirmed, Bishop O'Hara stressed the need of keeping strong in virtue. The men in the armed forces are not always to expect to have a chaplain at their side when in danger and through his absolution return to the state of grace. The aircraft carrier Lexington had no Catholic chaplain. Frequent Mass and Holy Communion help one build up the strength to remain in the state of grace.

Did You Get Up This Morning. . .

. . .to start the Novena for the Notre Dame service men, living and dead? By your efforts you can gain for someone the strength to overcome a temptation and remain in the state of grace. That man may be killed a few minutes later. To you can be given the credit of saving a soul.

Your sacrifice in rising in time for Mass and Communion will bring to some Notre Dame men protection from injury. Don't be a slacker.

Patrons.

Of all men in the U. S. Forces:	Our Lady under the title of her Immaculate Conception.
Of all aviators:	Our Lady of Loreto.

Draftees.

Many students have left for military service without dropping into the Office of the Prefect of Religion for the special medal and blessing. It takes but a few moments to give you these sources of spiritual strength and protection. Come in the day before you go, morning or evening. If you don't, you are the loser.

Follow The Band Tonight.

After the special evening meal the band will lead you to the gym for an evening of fun. All this is part of "Cooperation Week". The band will go to the gym by way of the Grotto. There all will stop for a short night prayer and to ask God to bless the Notre Dame men in the fighting forces. Your friends in Australia, Ireland and elsewhere will appreciate this cooperation.

Were You Late Last Week?

Mass on Sunday starts when the clock in the church strikes. If you are not in the church when the priest begins the prayers at the foot of the altar and you have slowly dragged yourself to the Holy Sacrifice setting the Gospel as the time of your entrance, you have sinned. Leave your room in sufficient time.

PRAYERS: (Deceased) mother of Grattan T. Stanford, trustee of the university; father of Jim Kelly (Dil) (Anniv); friend of Geo. Thoma; friend of James Torpy; uncle of Jack Breen (Dil); Bill Sweeney, university plumber; father of Zeno Staudt, '30. (Ill) Rev. Wm. Ford, C.S.C.; friend of Bill Crumley (Bron. last semester); Peter Monaghan; sister of Brother Alexander, C.S.C. Seven Special Intentions.